MILLERS LOG '77

I wish I knew how it would feel to be free
I wish I could break these chains holding me
I wish I could say all the things I can say Say them loud,
Say them clear,
For the whole
Round world to hear.

I wish I could share all the love that's in my heart
I'd just remove all the bars that keep us apart
I wish I could do all the things I can do Though I'm way overdue,
I'd be starting anew.

I wish I could give all that I'm longing to give
I wish I could live like I'm longing to live I wish you could know what it feels to be me
Then you'd see,
Then you'd agree,
Each man should be free.

I wish I could be like a bird in the sky How sweet it would be if I found I could fly
I'd fly up to the sun,
I'd come down at the sea
Then I'd sing 'cause I'd know
What it feels to be free.

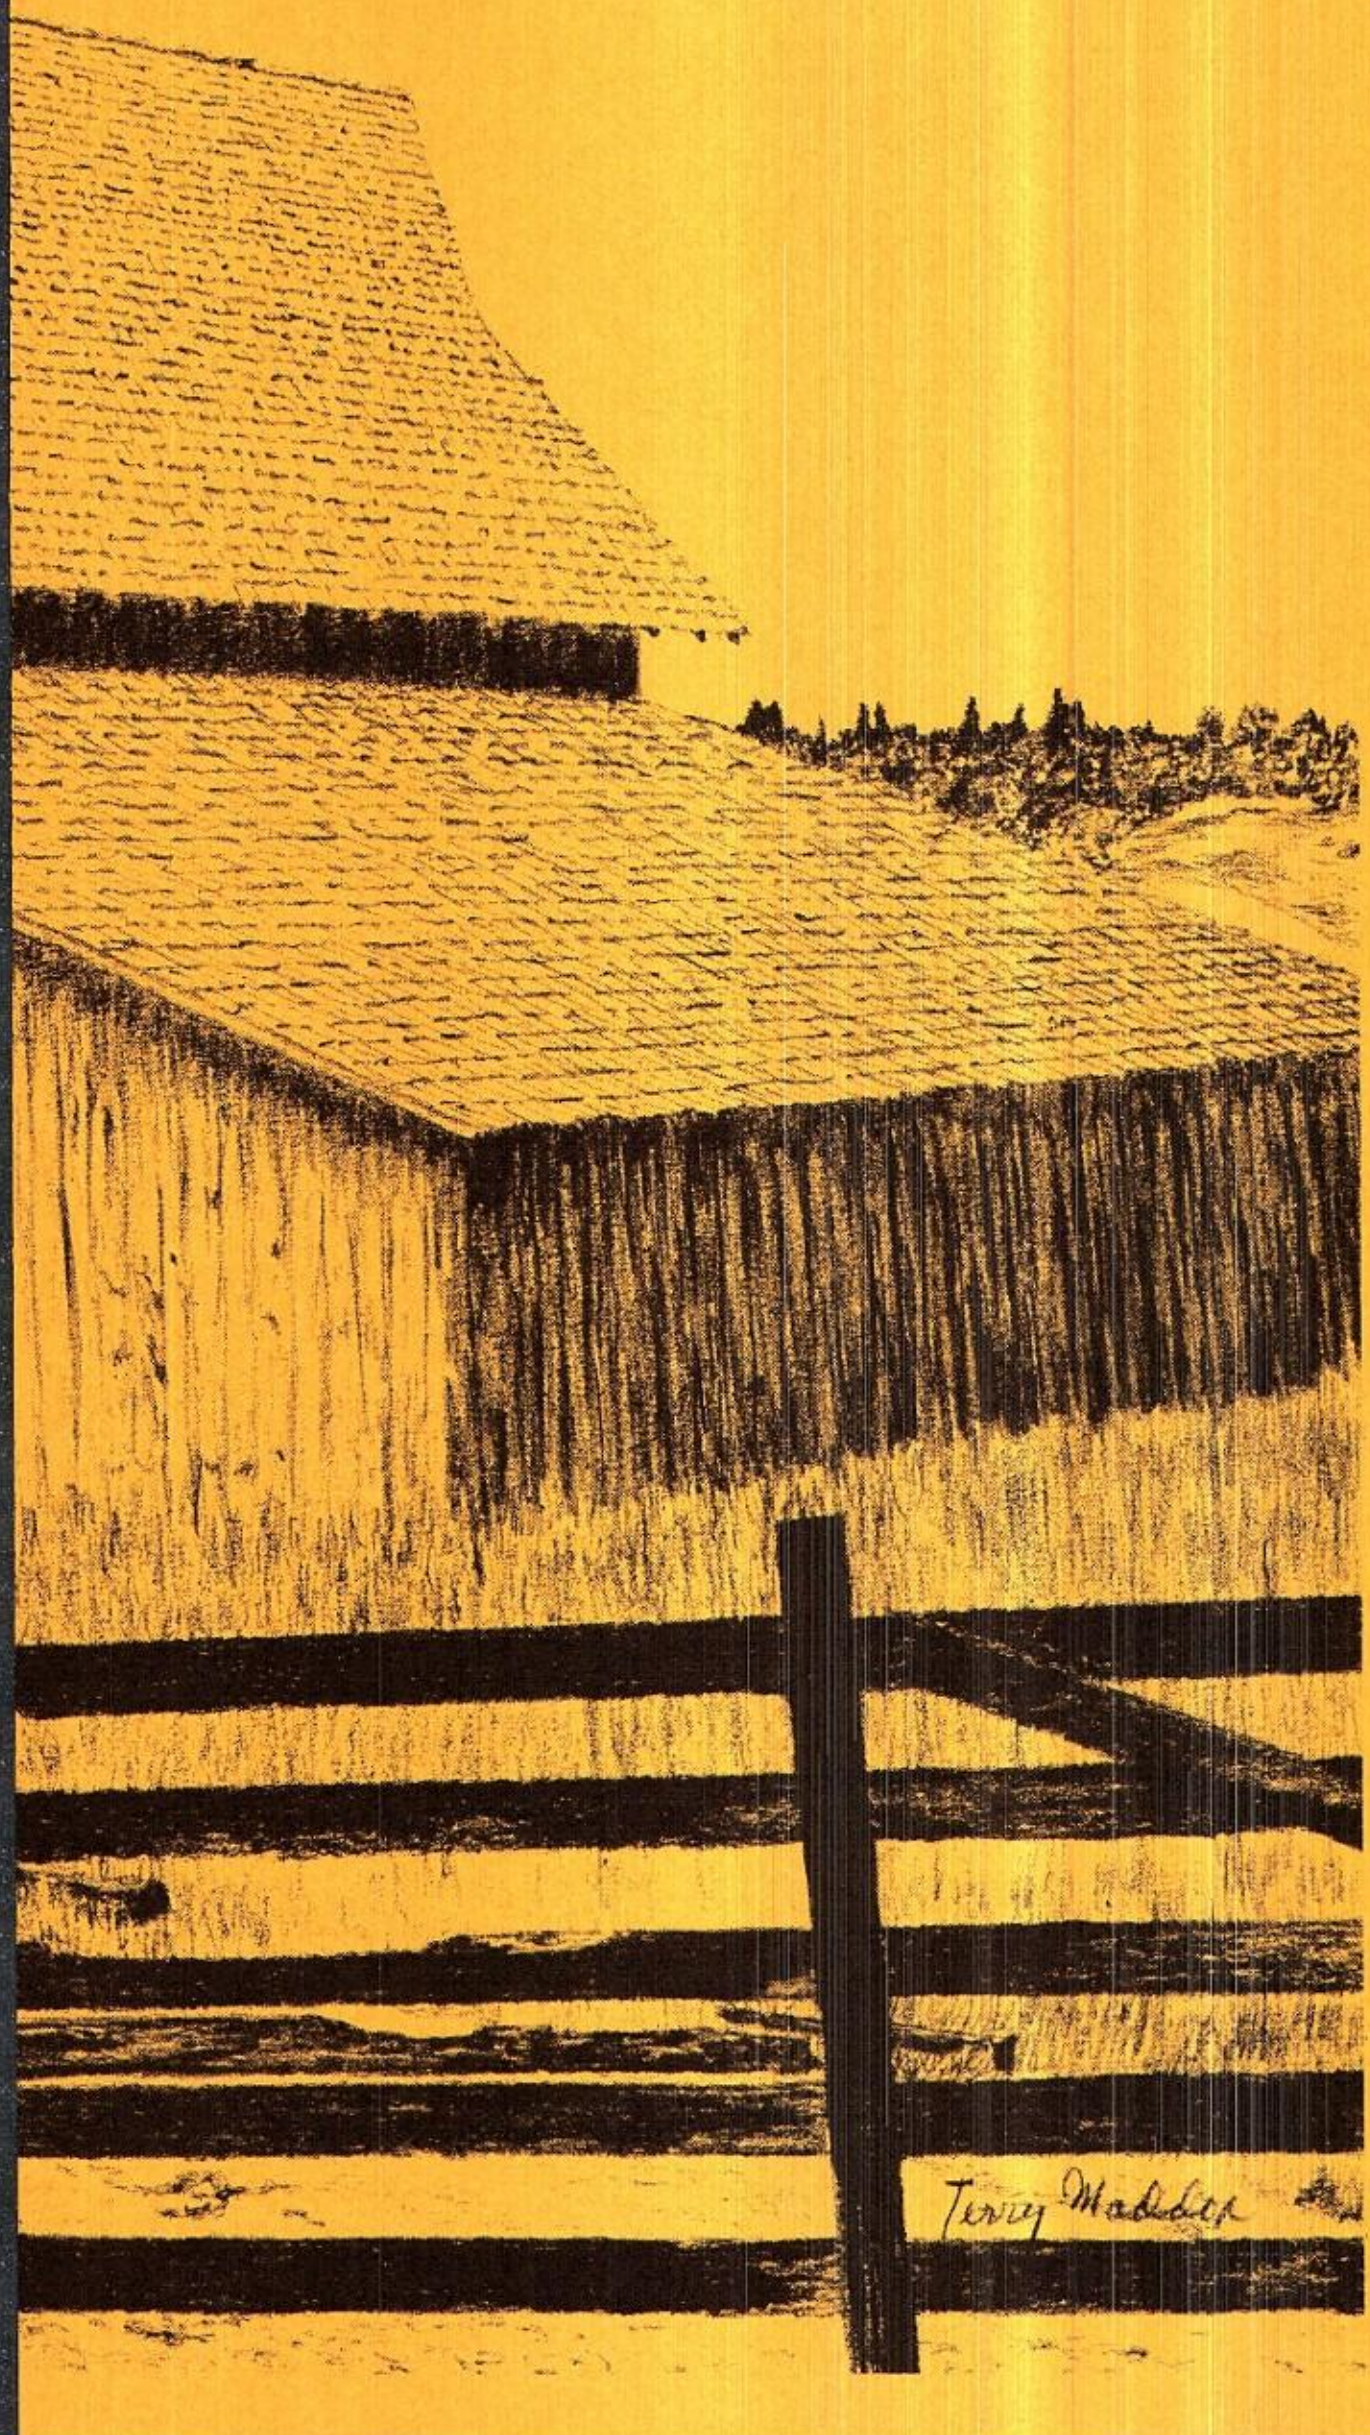
Sophmore year



Each moment of the year

Each moment of the year
has it's own beauty... a picture which was never seen before and which shall never be seen again.

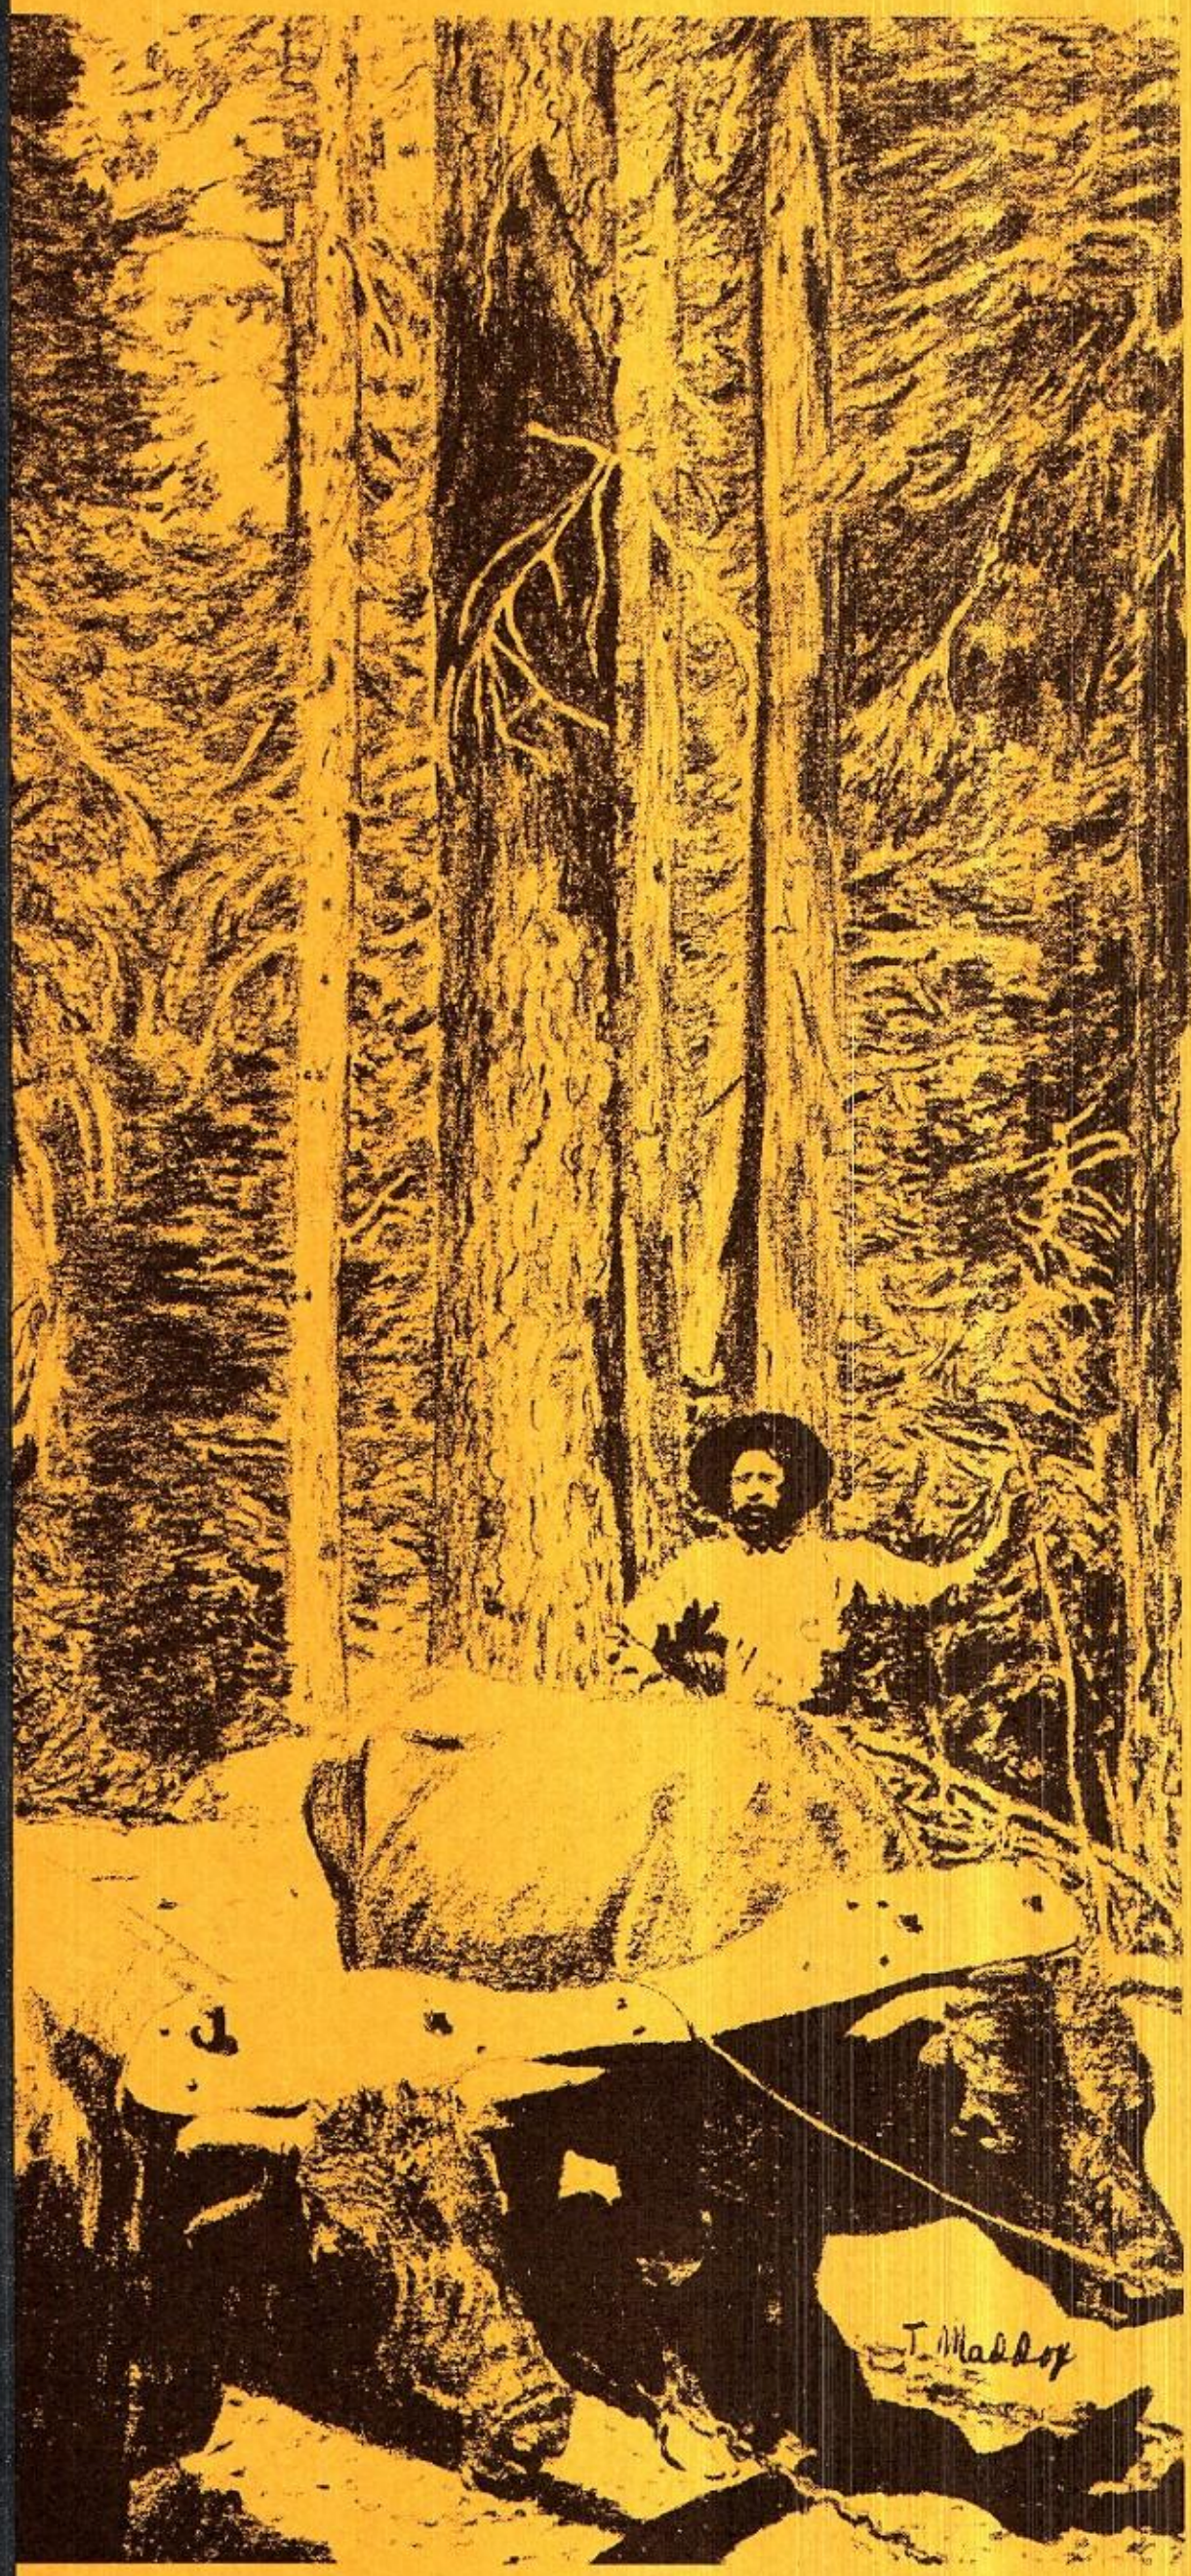
Ralph Waldo Emerson



And that has made all the difference

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by
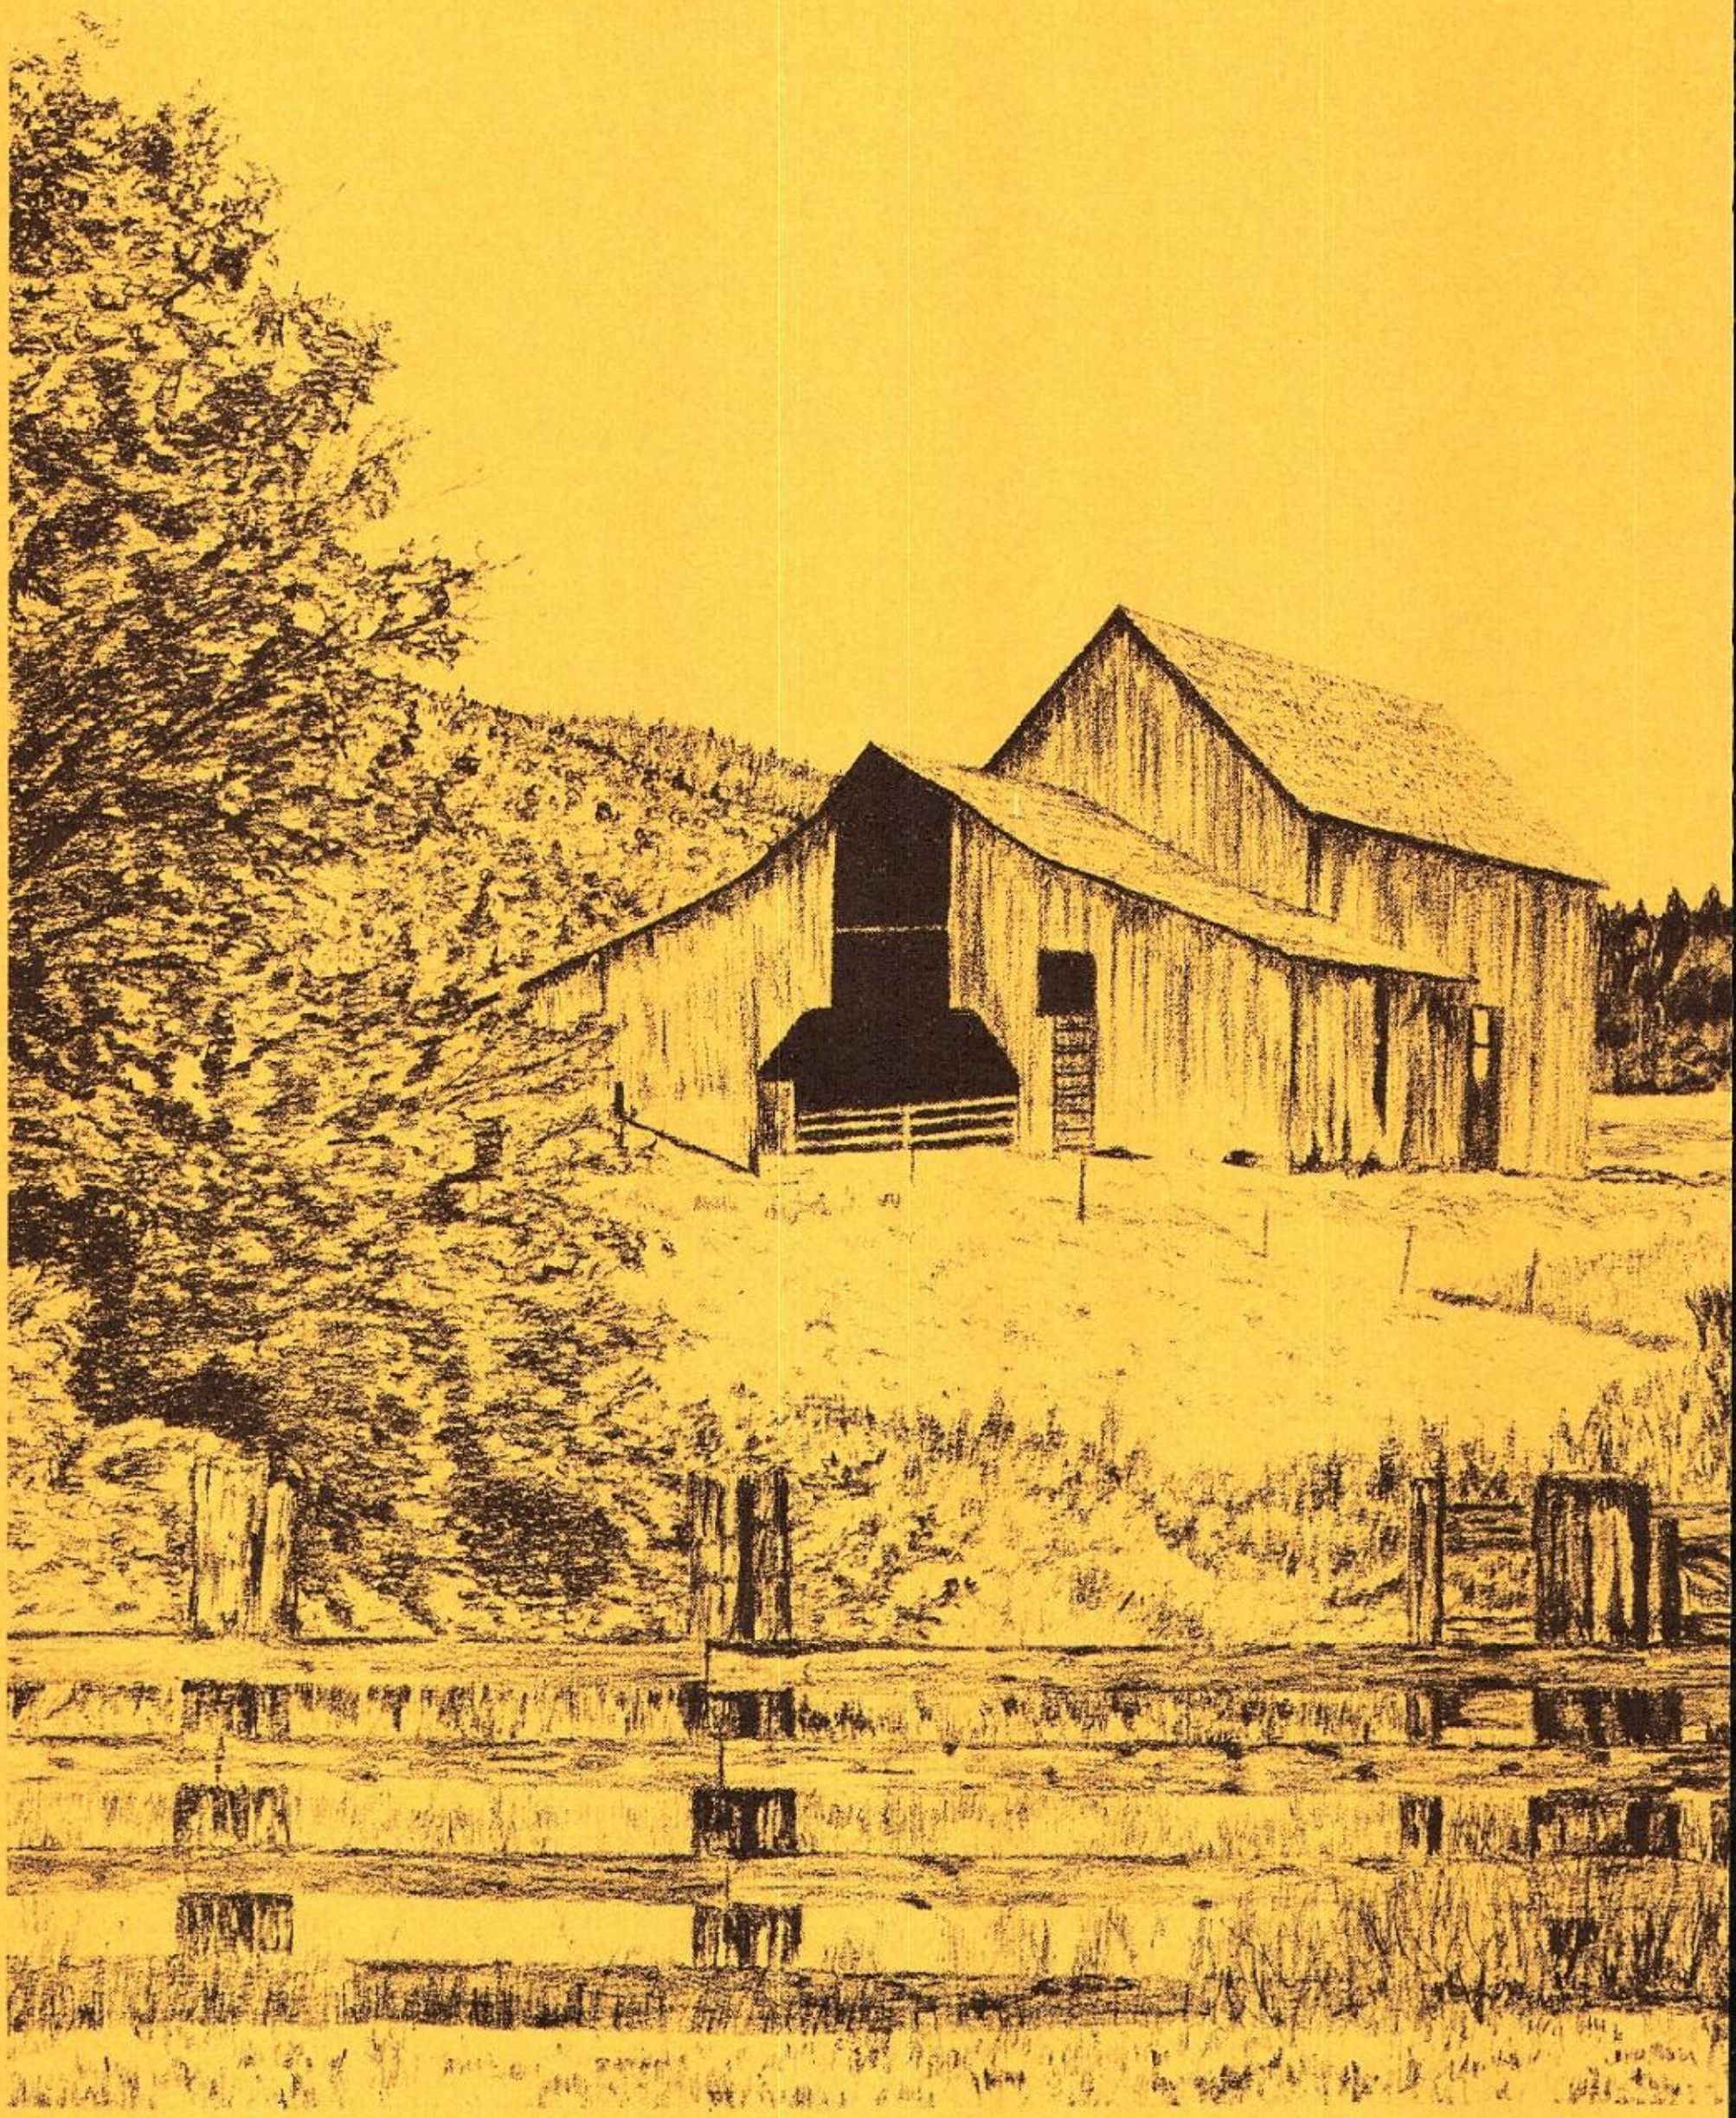
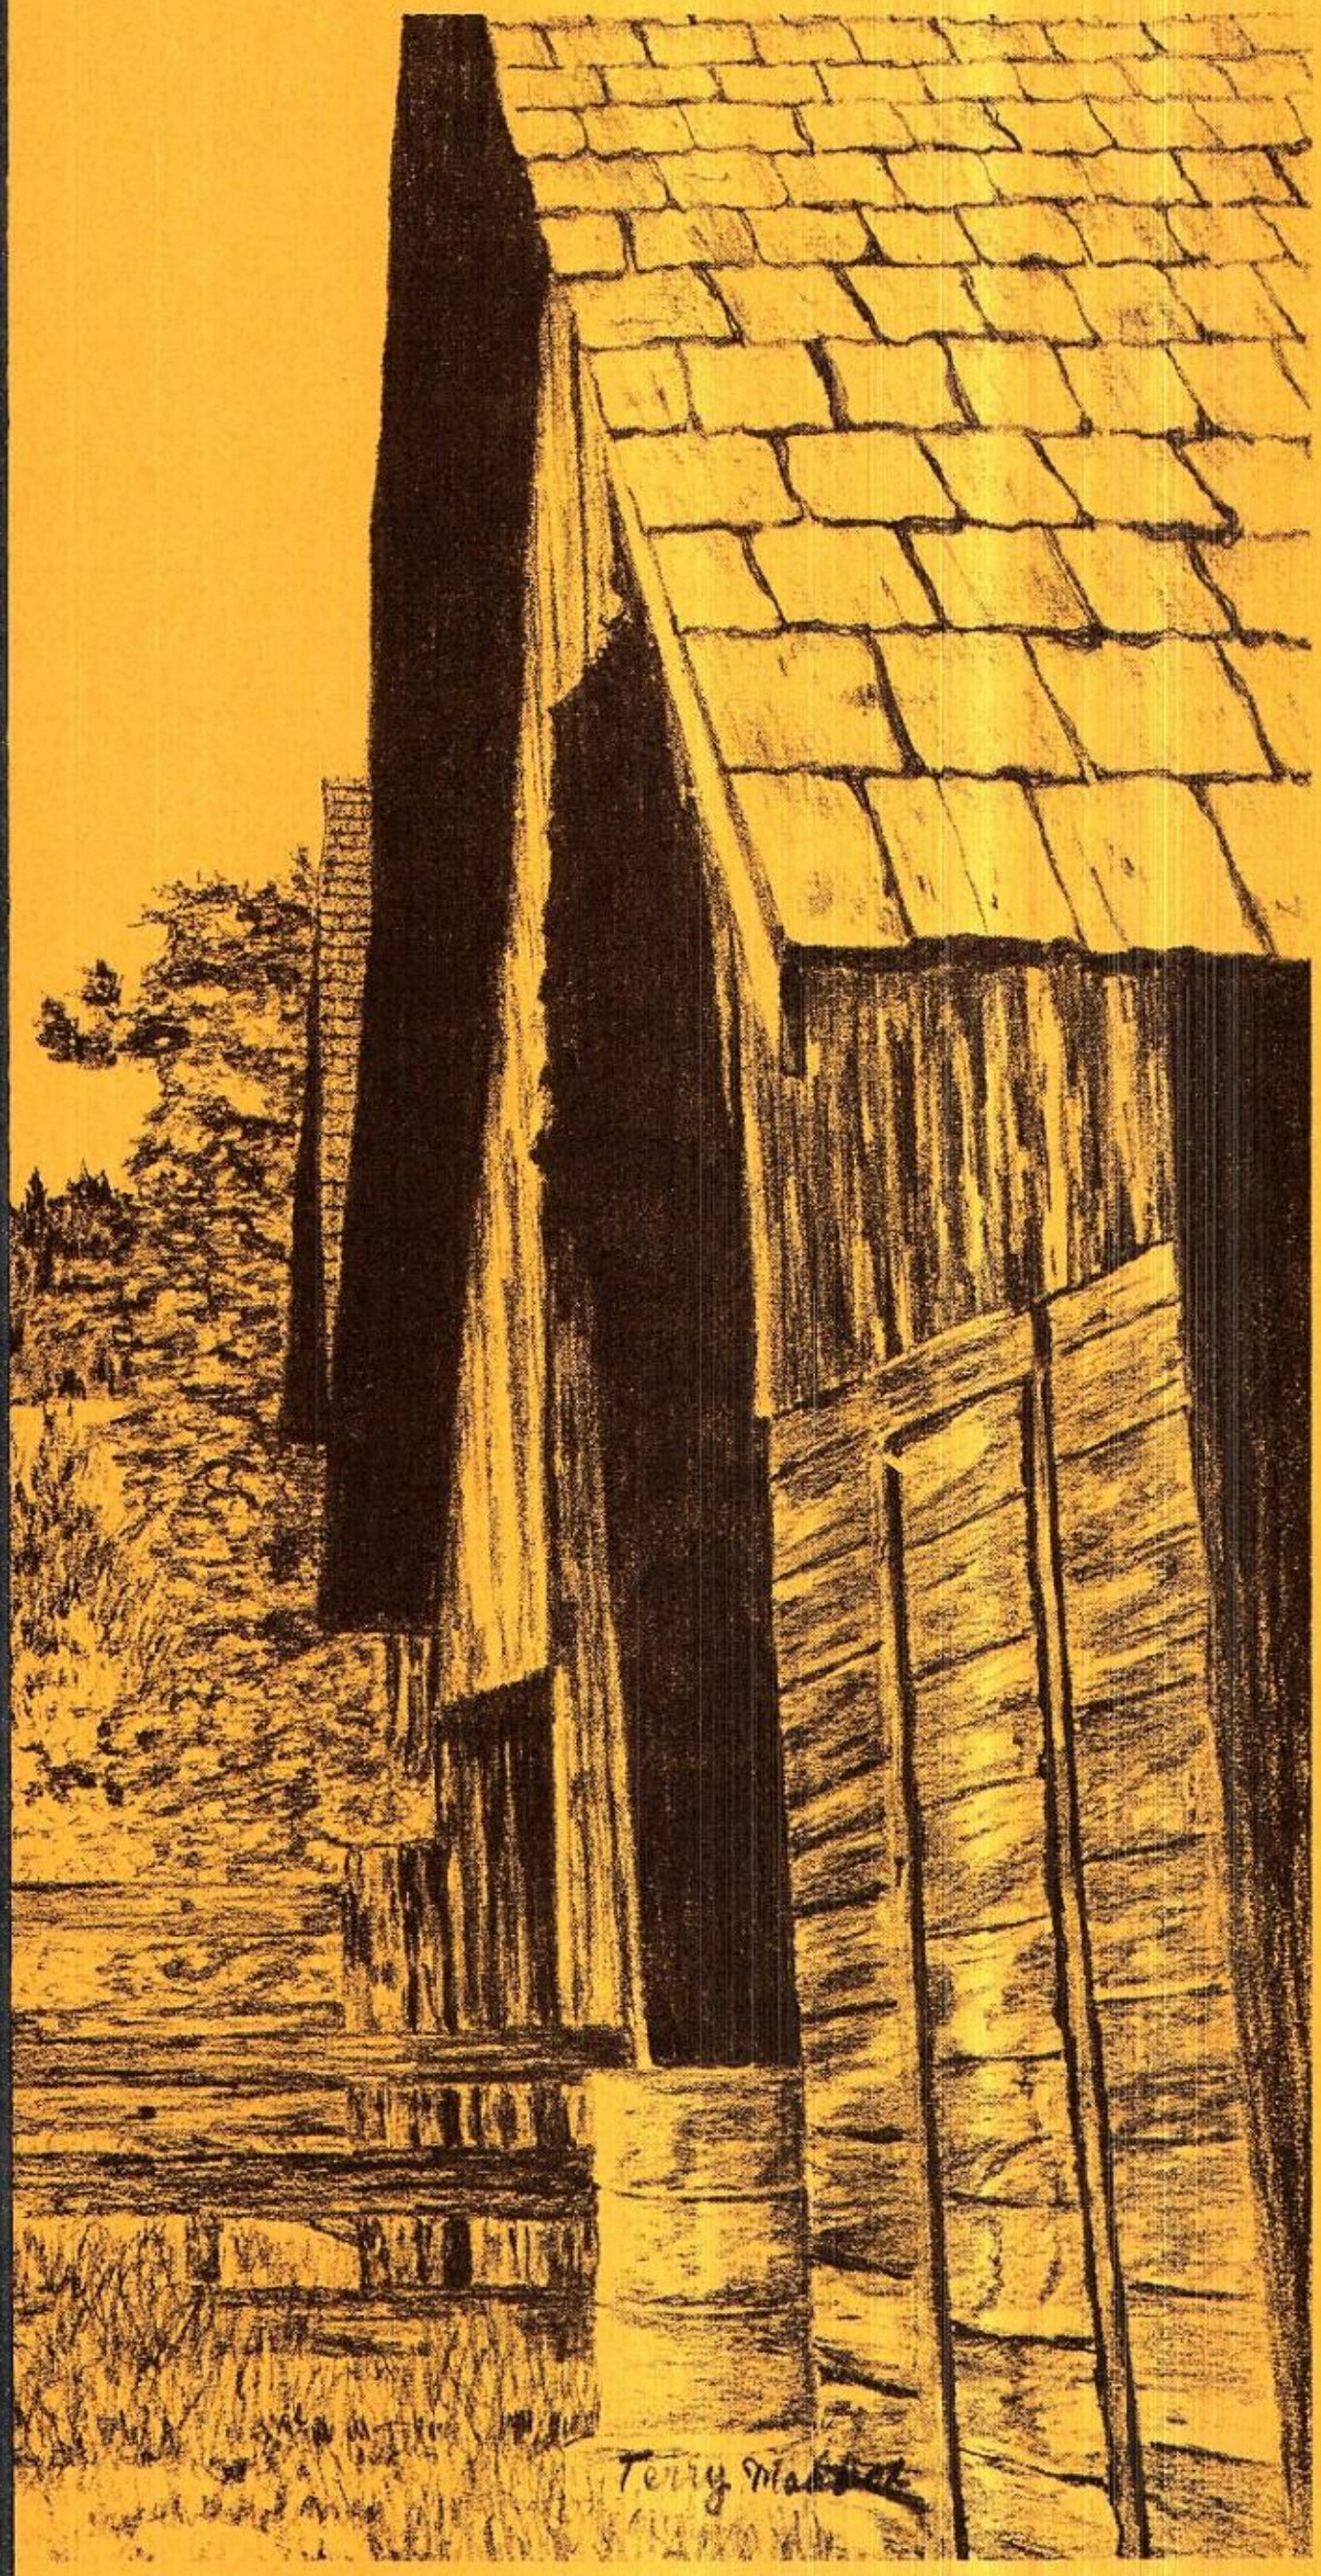
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost





Try to remember

Try to remember the kind of September when life was slow and oh, so mellow.
Try to remember the kind of September when grass was green and grain was yellow.
Try to remember the kind of September when you were a tender and callow fellow.
Try to remember
and if you remember,
then follow.

Try to remember when life was so tender that no one wept except the willow. Try to remember when life was so tender that dreams were kept beside our pillow. Try to remember when life was so tender that love was an ember about to billow. Try to remember and if you remember,
then follow.

They paved paradise

They paved paradise and put up
a parking lot
With a pink hotel, a boutique and a swinging hot spot.
Don't it always seem to go
That you don't know what you've got till it's gone?
They paved paradise and put up
a parking lot.

They took all the trees and put them in a tree museum,
And they charged all the people a dollar and a half just to see 'em.
Don't it always seem to go
That you don't know what
you've got till it's gone?
They paved paradise and put up
a parking lot.

Hey, farmer, farmer, put away that D.D.T. now.
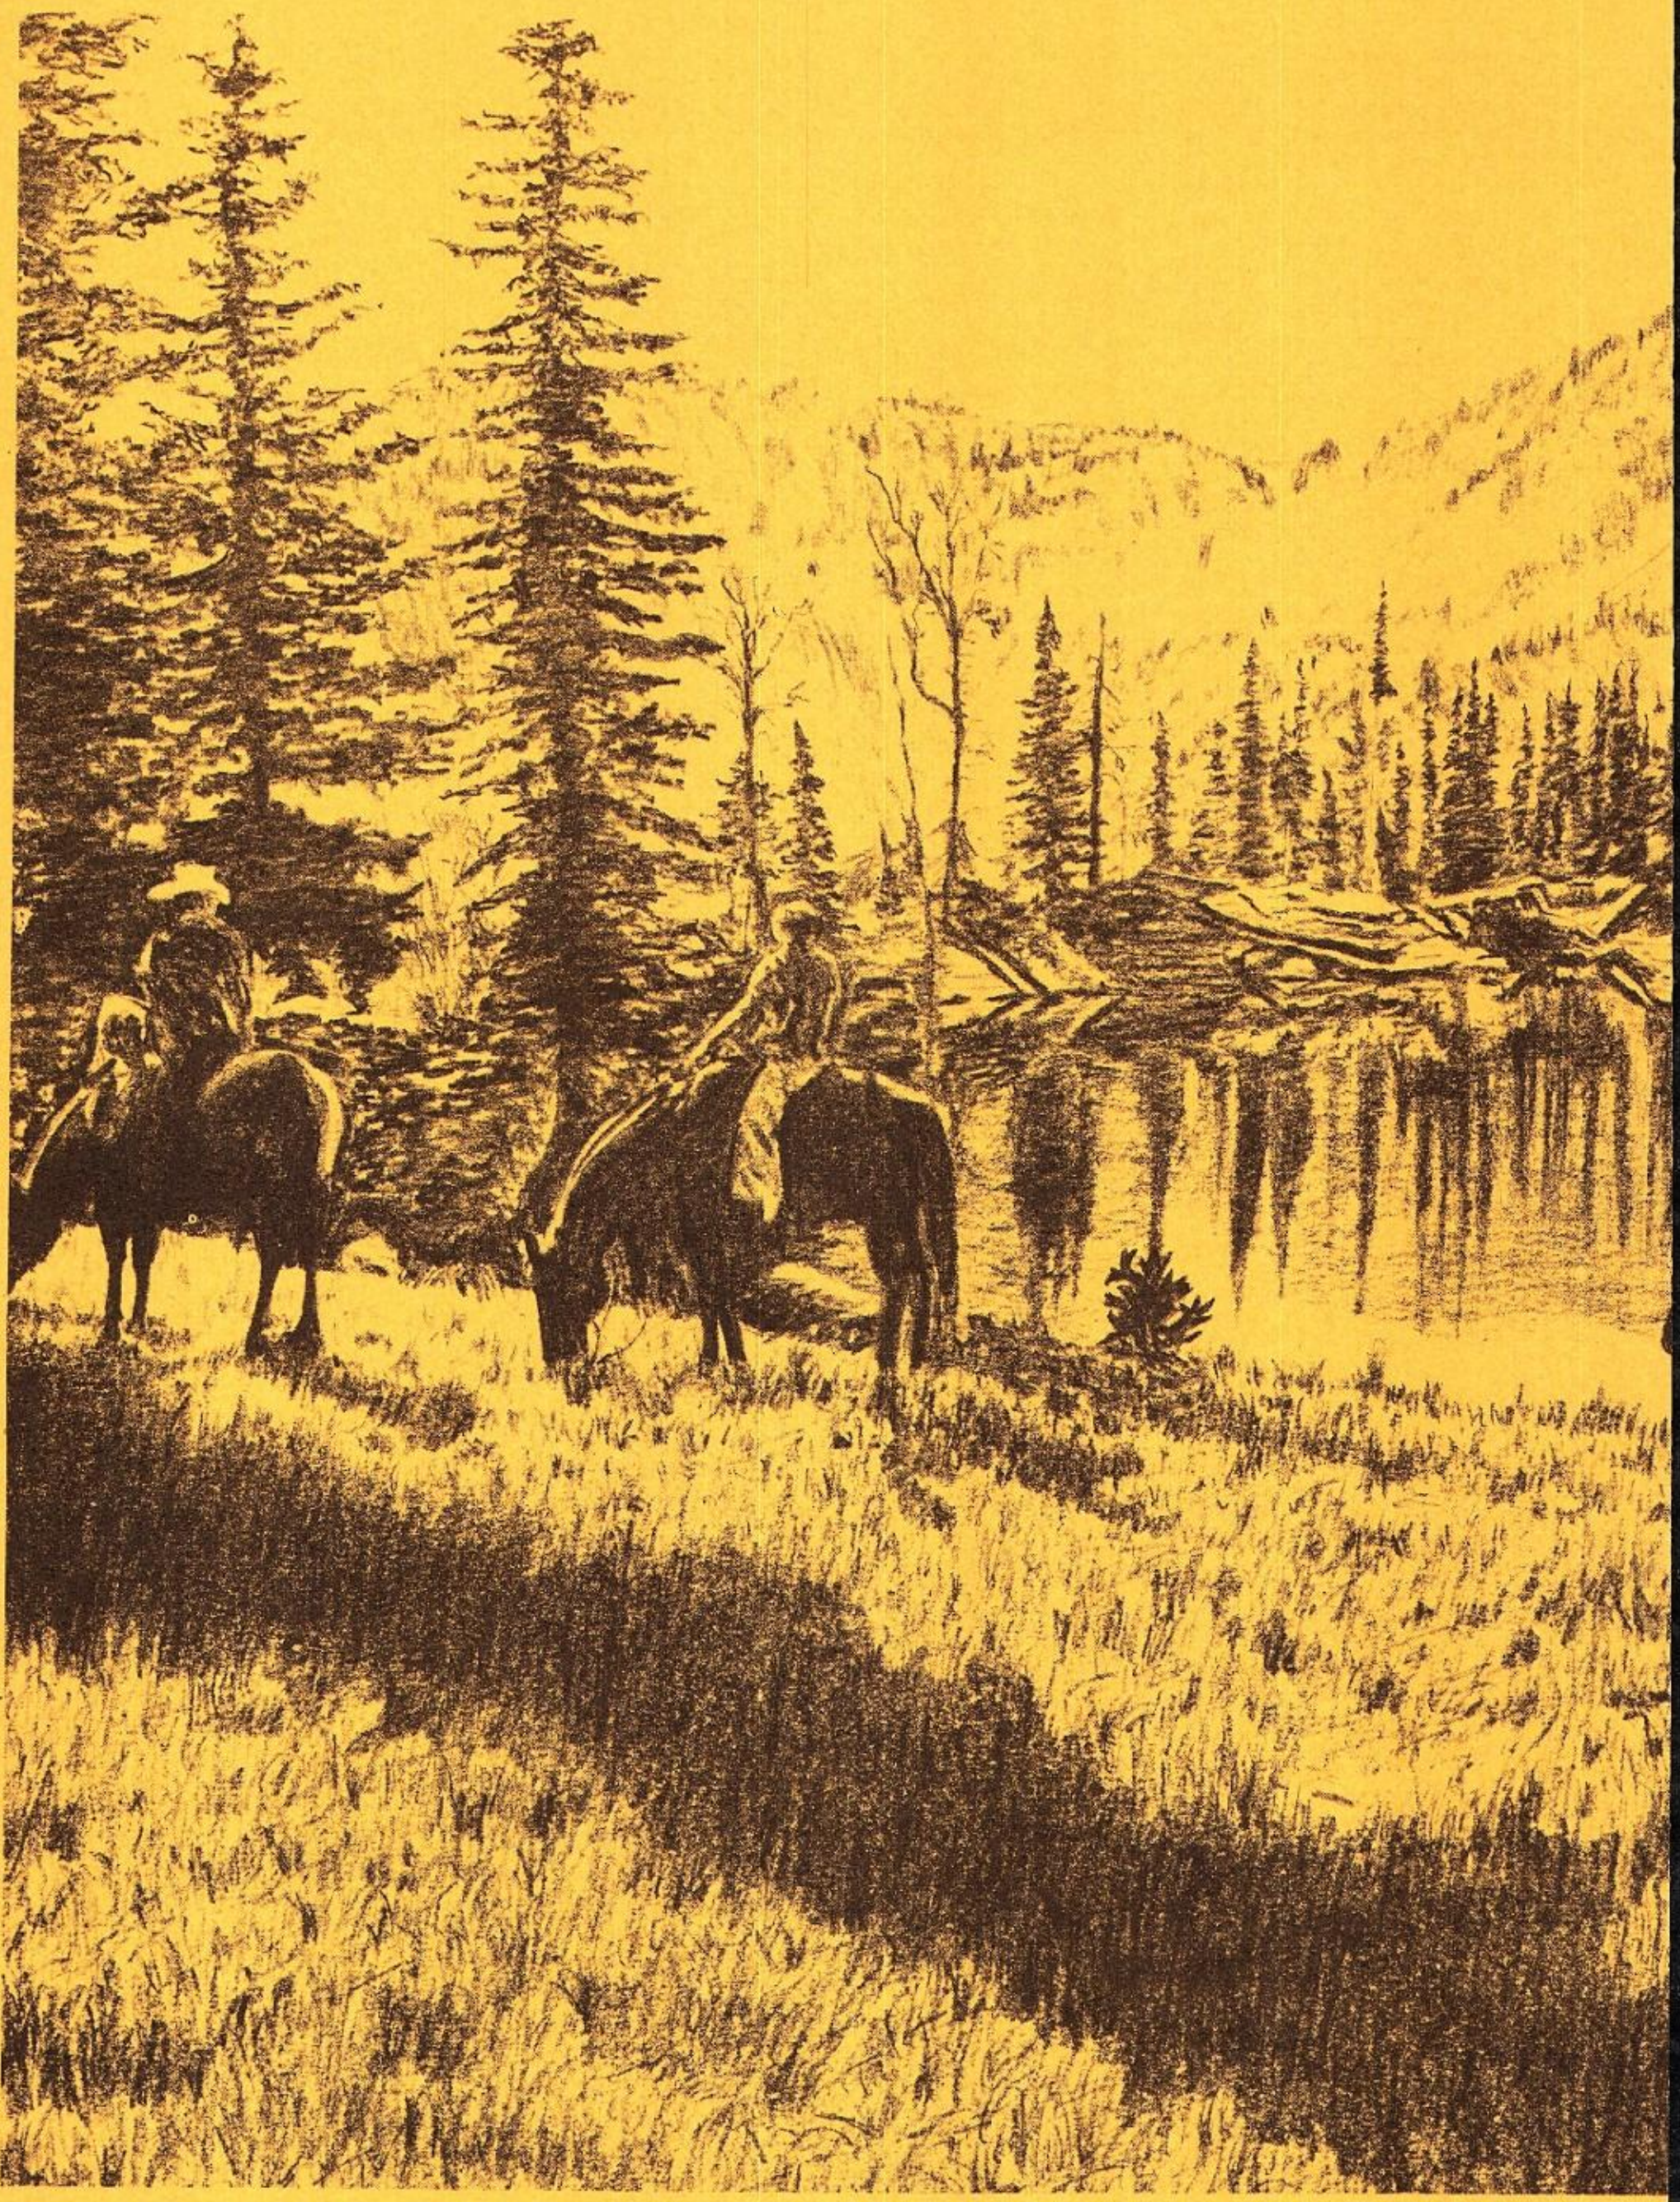
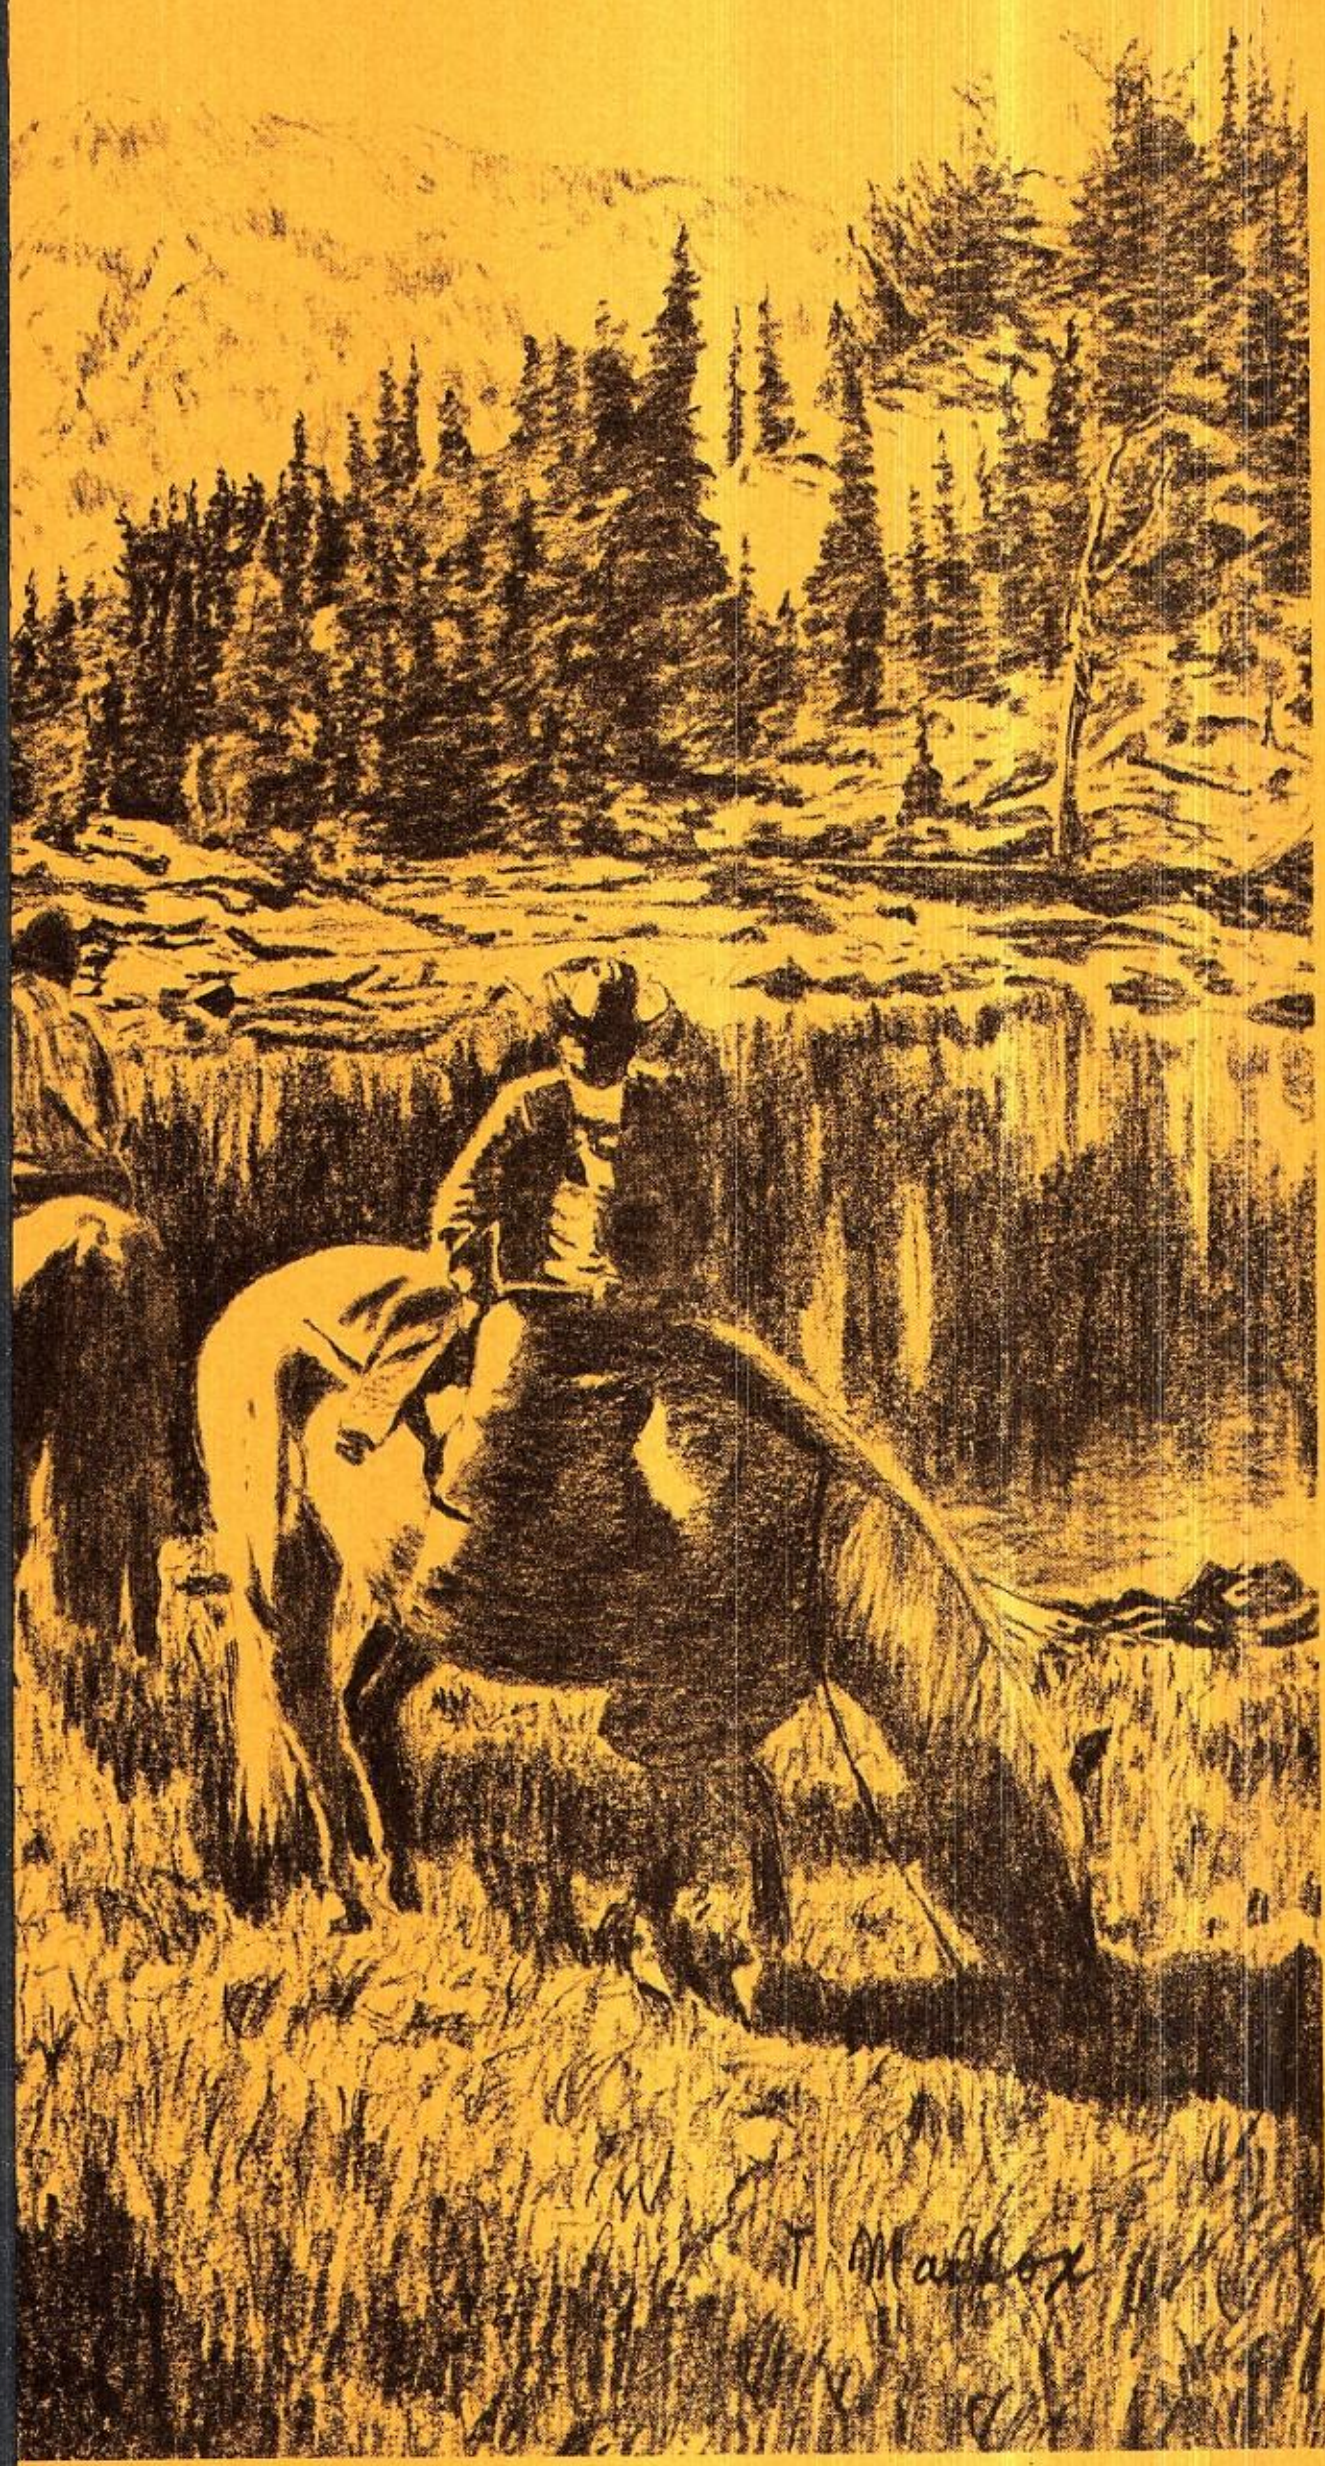
Give me spots on my apples,
but leave the birds
and the bees please.
Don't it always seem to go
That you don't know what
you've got till it's gone?
They paved paradise and put up
a parking lot.

Joni Mitchel





Touch the earth

Touch the earth,
love the earth,
honor the earth,
her plains,
her valleys,
her hills,
and her seas.

Rest your soul
in her solitary places.

Henry Beston

If one advances confidently

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams

And endeavors to live a life which he has imagined

He will meet with a success unexpected in common dreams.

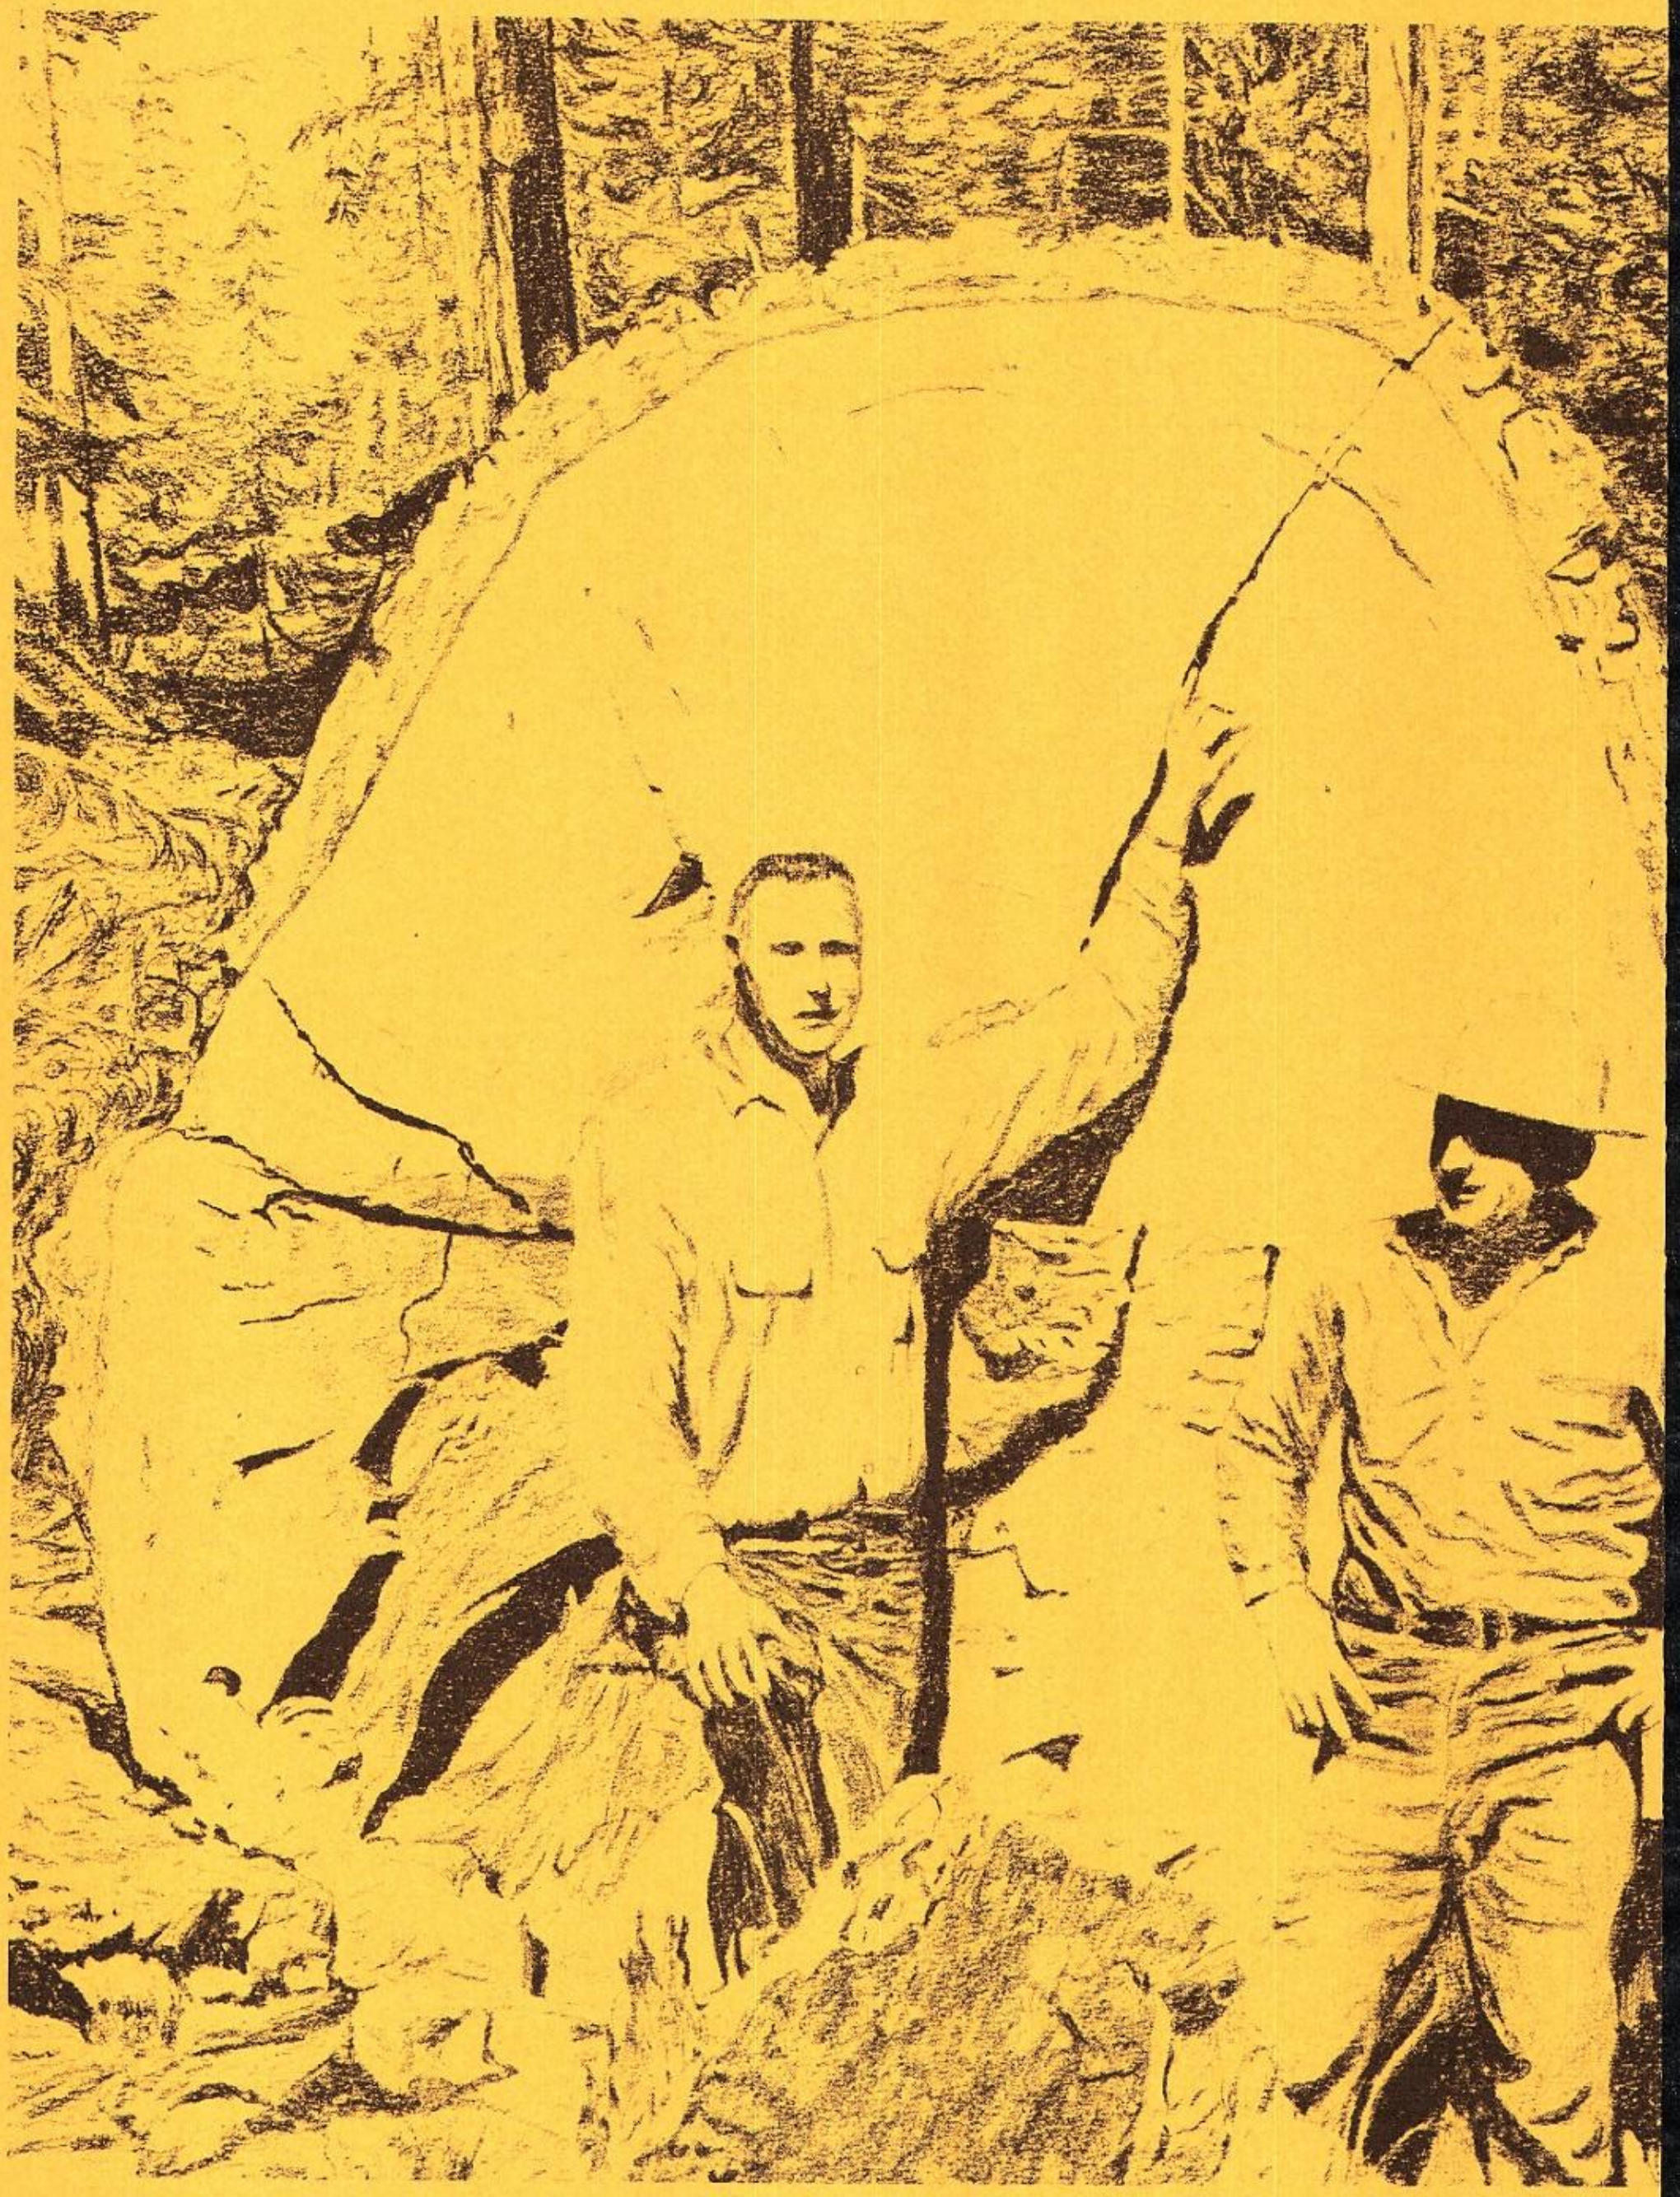
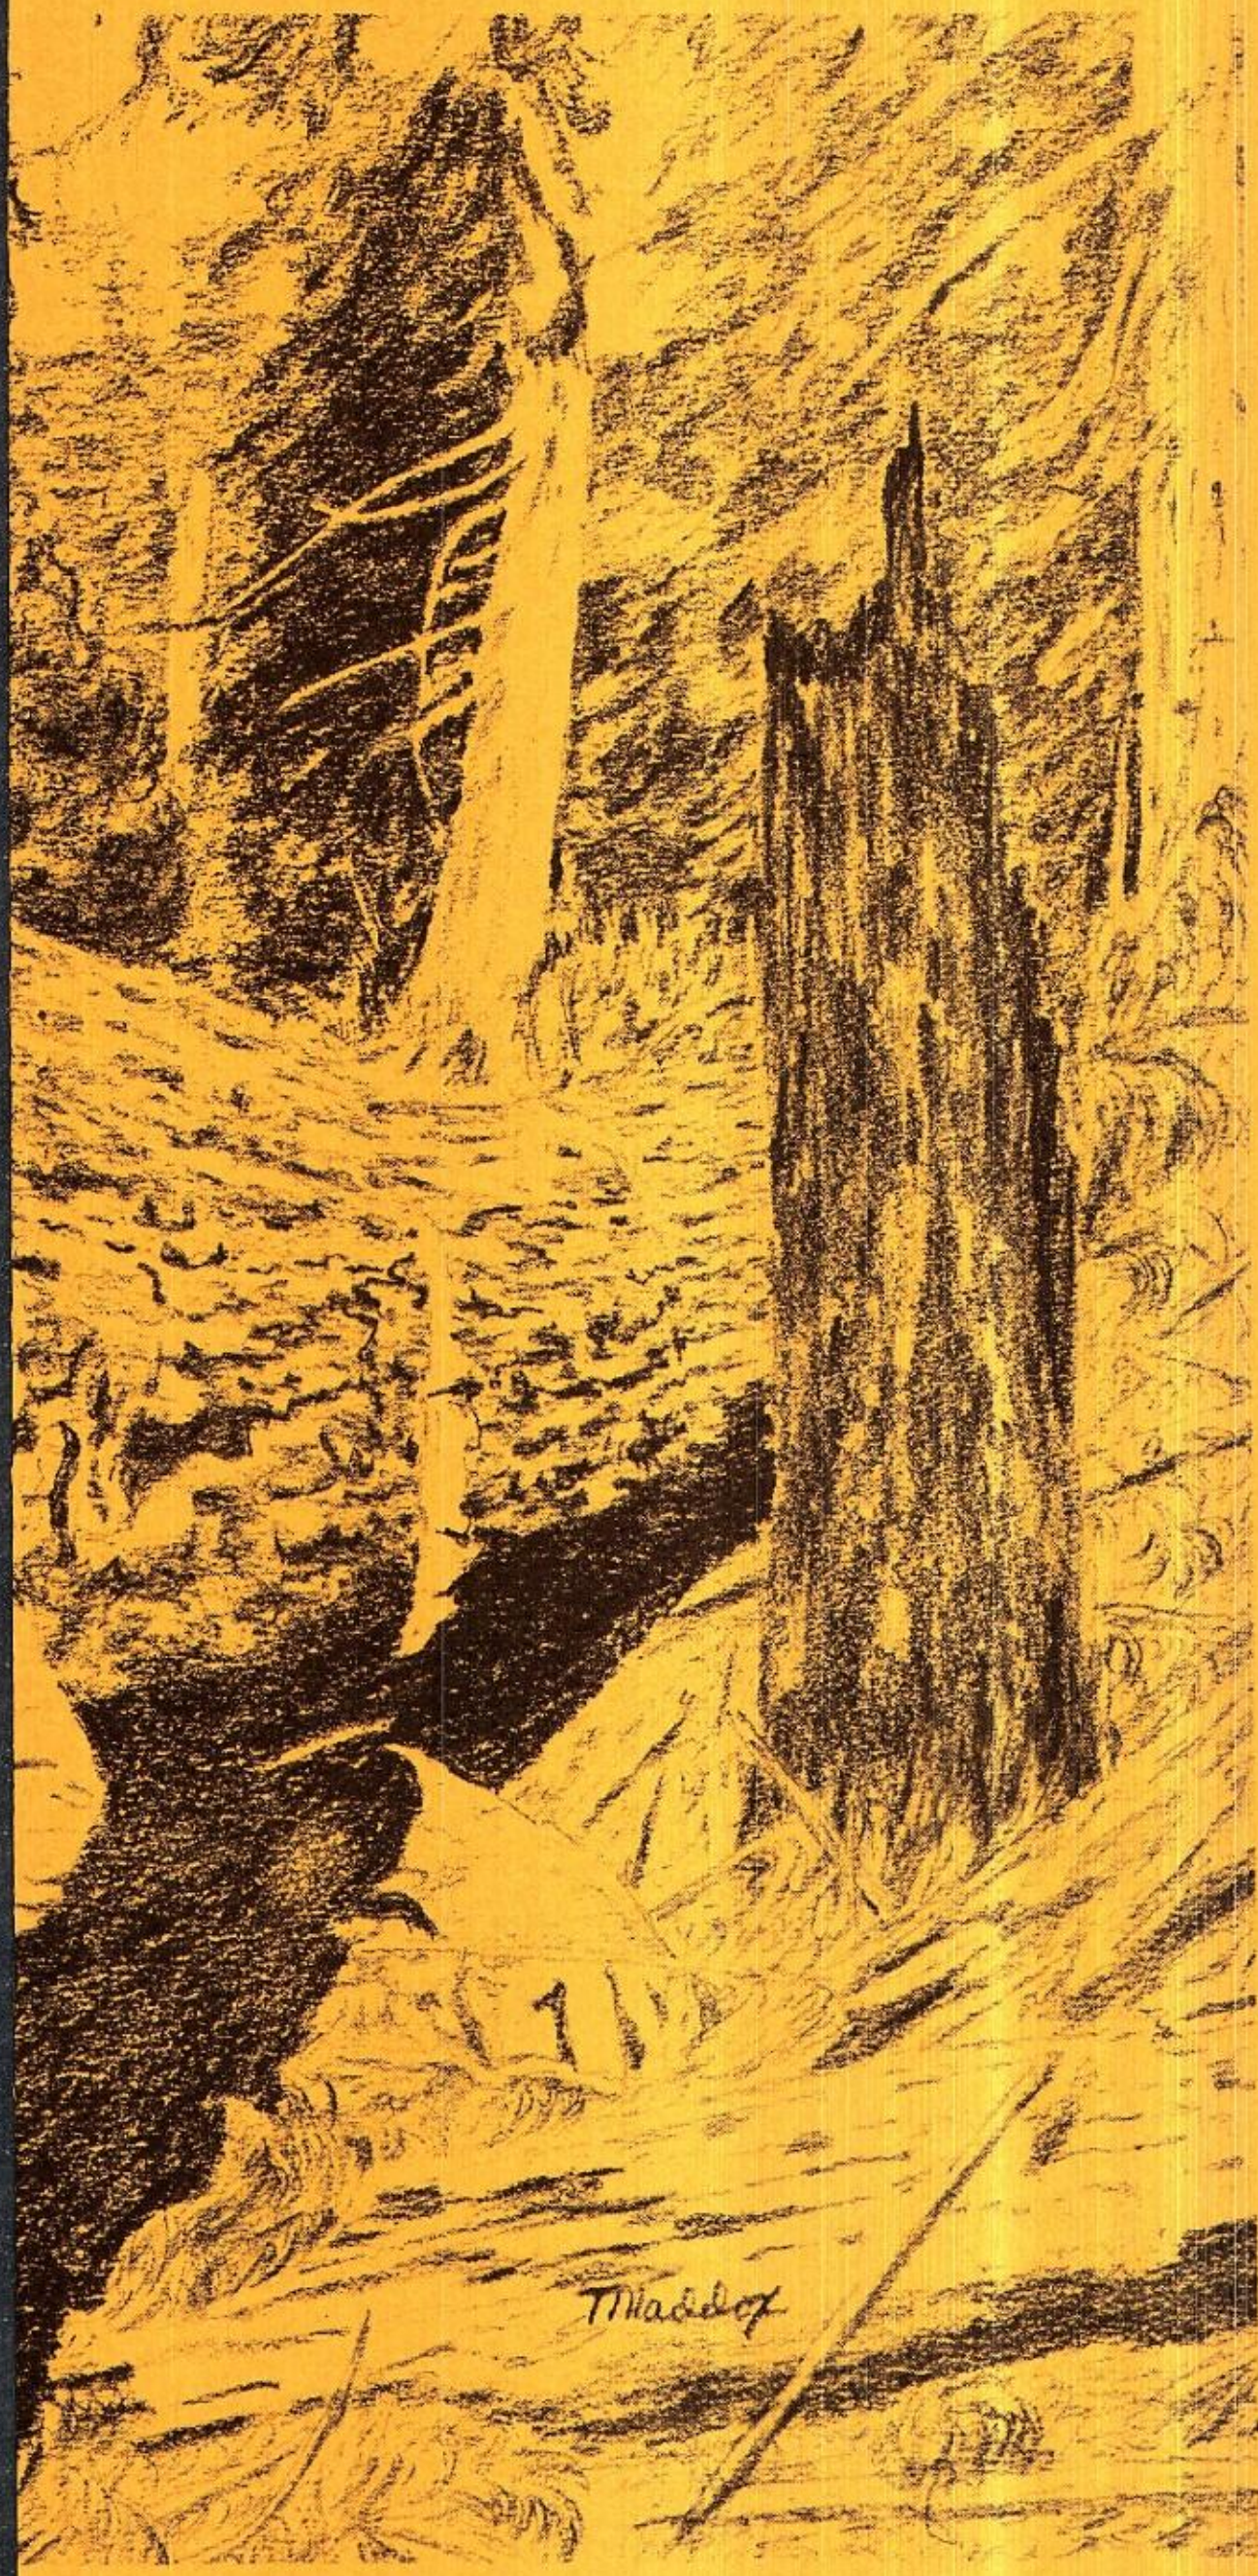
Henry David Thoreau





A time of peace

a time to be born,
and a time to die;
a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up
what is planted;
a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up;
a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
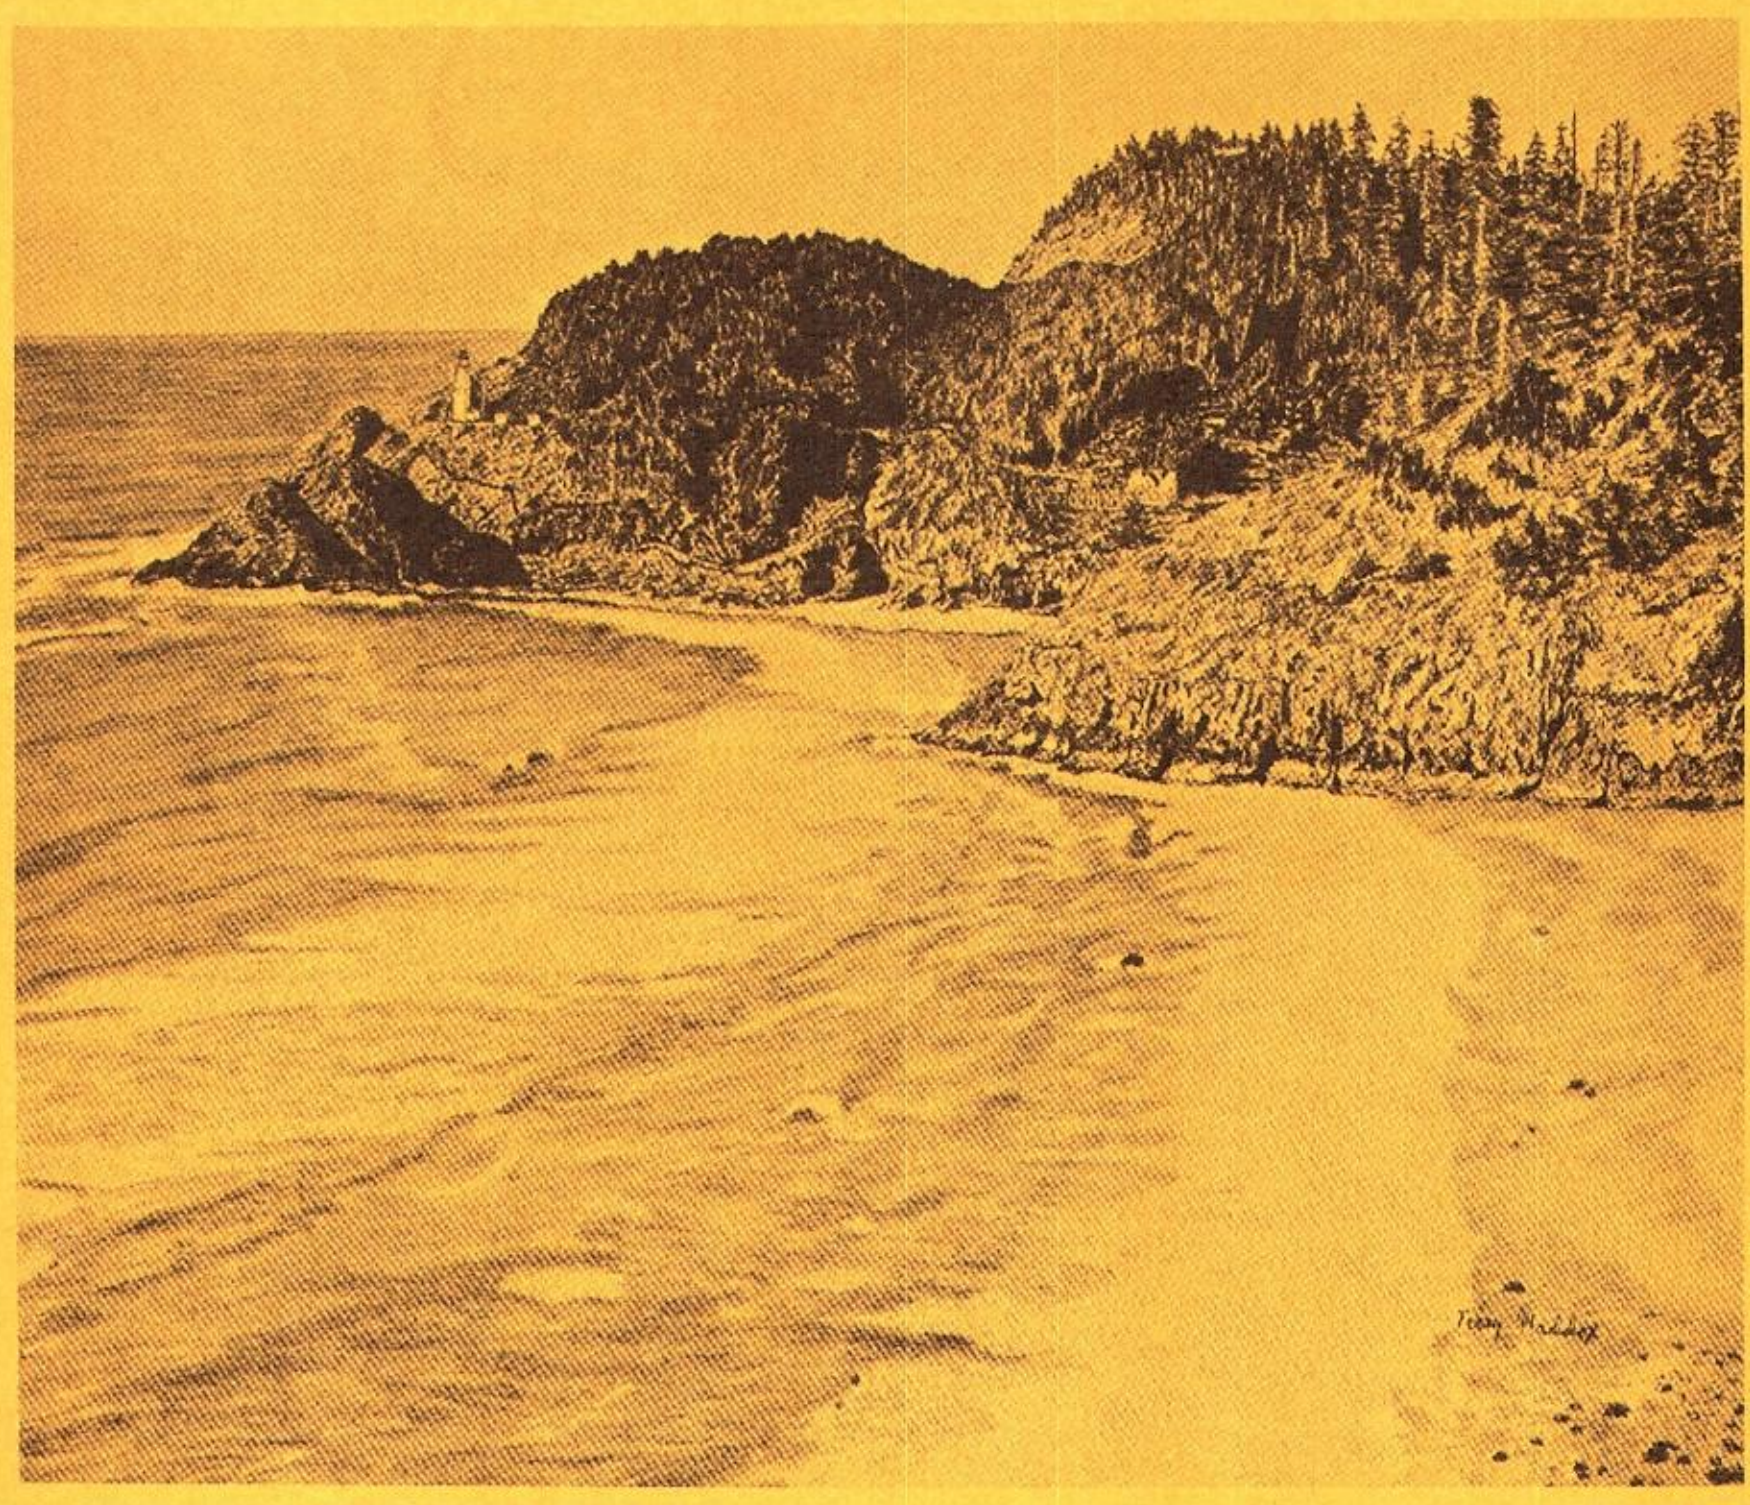
a time to seek,
and a time to lose;
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away;
a time to rend,
and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time of war,
and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8



Walking to the beach's end

Stepping down sandy stairs
On a foggy day.
Casting our shoes aside
Not caring if the tide
Washes them away
Walking to the beach's end
Just because it's there.
Then just walking backward.
To reach the sandy stair.

DEDICATED TO THOSE WHO DARE TO LEARN SOMETHING NEW

To become someone, not just another face in the crowd, but a well respected individual.

To those who went the extra mile, or even the extra inch to be better than average.

To those who dare not to be good but to be best.

To those who don't say "I'll try," but rather, "I will."

To Mr. Maddox, who dared to discover his hidden talents and abilities. To make something of his free time. To become someone. He cared enough to develop an interest in drawing and now his artwork is highly respected all over the Pacific Northwest. He didn't give up without ever trying. If you don't succeed the first time, try again. Success is not in never falling, but in rising every time you fall. That's what makes a winner. Everyone has talent. Take time to find it. The talent is there, you just have to have an interst to succeed, to become something more than ordinary. Remember Henry Ford's advice, "Whether you think you can, or you think you can't, you're right."

Because of Mr. Maddox's ability and interest in drawing, we have featured some of his finest works in the 1977 Millers Log.

"We took first in everything there was to place in"

When drama students entered the seventh annual interstate play festival at Walla Walla, Wash., they did indeed take first in everything there was to take.

Awards and trophies are as follows: The "Miracle Worker", first place for best production. Phil Hayes and Ernie Witt, first place for improvisation. Karla Smith and Deeji Killian, received two out of five of the Outstanding Female Performer Awards. And Dan Hempy, who received an Outstanding Male Performer award.

The Millers opened the season with quite a bang, annihilating Willamette at home by a score of 26-0. Though it was still too early to even think of state, both players and coaches alike had visions of an undefeated season in their minds.

It's funny what a thing blowing an opponent off the field turf can do to lift a team's hopes. And it's sad what happens when those hopes are rudely shattered by the big boys across town. The Millers were figuring there wouldn't be a better route to state than knocking off North Eugene in the second game of the season, but the Highlanders had other ideas. North set the Millers down in a 43-0 game that wasn't as close as the score indicated.

Instead of brooding about what might have been, the Millers showed some admirable courage and bounced back to edge Cottage Grove in a 19-18 thriller at Silke Field. Following a forfeit over North Bend, the Millers traveled over to Autzen, this time to take on league favorite Churchill. Again the Millers were set down hard, but again they came back to edge Sheldon 13-10 in another barn burner. Relying on Clutch defense, the Millers were able to pull out their fourth win in six games when Lonnie Bessett went 83 yards with the kickoff for his second touchdown return of the season.

With only one more win needed in three games to clinch a winning season for the first time in nine years, the Millers struggled mightily but wound up losing their remaining games.

Some were upset over the sudden nosedive by the Millers, but the encouraging aspects of the season far outweighed those on the negative side.

First of all, their record of 4-5 was the best since 1967, which put them one step closer to being a contender for the title.

Secondly, they were able to win the close ones, which is the mark of a team that has quite a bit going for them. Of the two battles decided by less than ten points, the Millers came out on the top end of both.

The Junior Varsity football team finished the 1976 football season ranking in 6th place, winning just over 30% of their games. However, quite a lot of talent was developed, and as one team member put it, "We had a lot of fun. It was really a good experience."

Everyone did their best, and team spirit and determination abounded. All in all, despite the scores, the Millers had a good season and learned a lot.

The Miller volleyball team finished higher than any Springfield volleyball team in years. They ended the season with a winning record of 10-7, and took 4th place in district.

The district race is important, but doesn't determine who will go to state. There is a double - elimination tournament at the end of the season to pick the team who goes to the state volleyball tourney.

Springfield went into that tourney with a lot of confidence. Their first game was against 3rd place Churchill, in which they lost 5-15, 10-15. Next came Thurston, and Springfield beat them in 2 games 15-9, 15-5. In double elimination, the teams keep playing until they get two loses. The Thurston win sparked the Millers, as they eliminated South from the tourney with wins of 15-7, 19-5 and 15-13. That match was the only one where Springfield went three games.

The last game for Springfield was against North Eugene, who placed second in the tournament. They lost to North 8-15, 13-15.

A 4th place finish. Players like Lori Quick, Kelly Smith, Sally Harmon, Jacque Savage, and all the others made it happen.

Kelly got the MVP honors with her outstanding playing throughout the year. She was the only Miller on the team to have three varsity volleyball letters.

Kathy Quick, a sophomore standout got most improved volleyball player. Lori Quick, sister of Kathy got the most inspirational player.

It was a good year for volleyball, and district proved it!

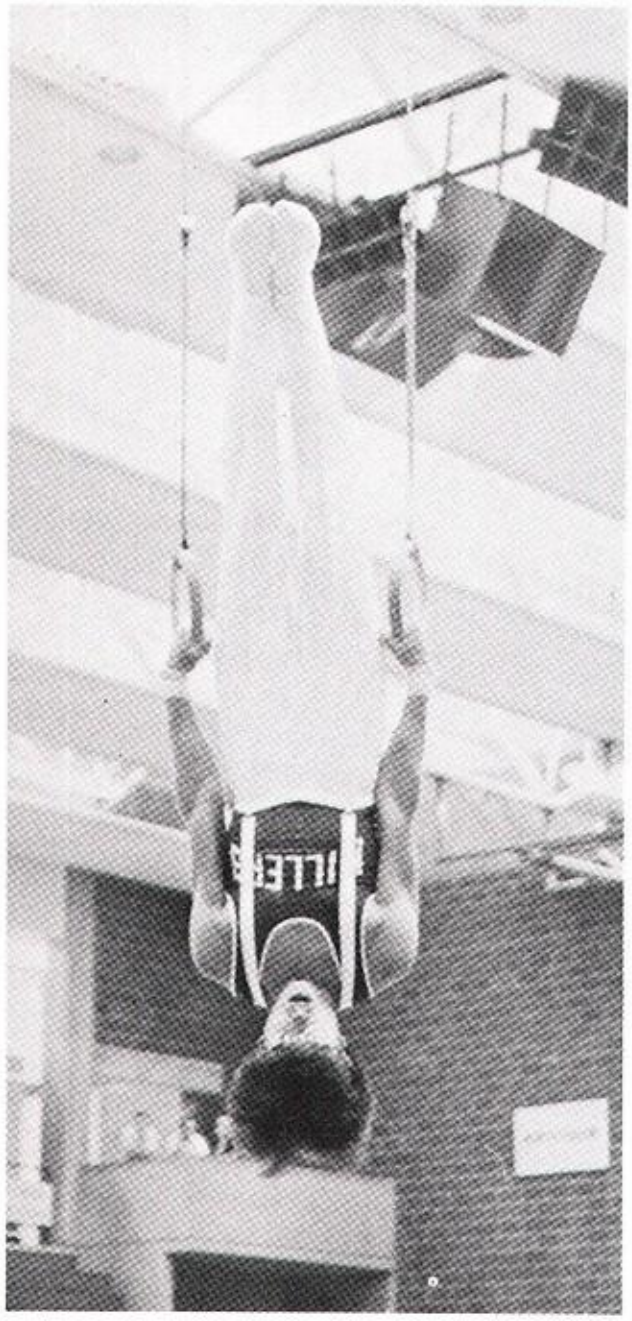
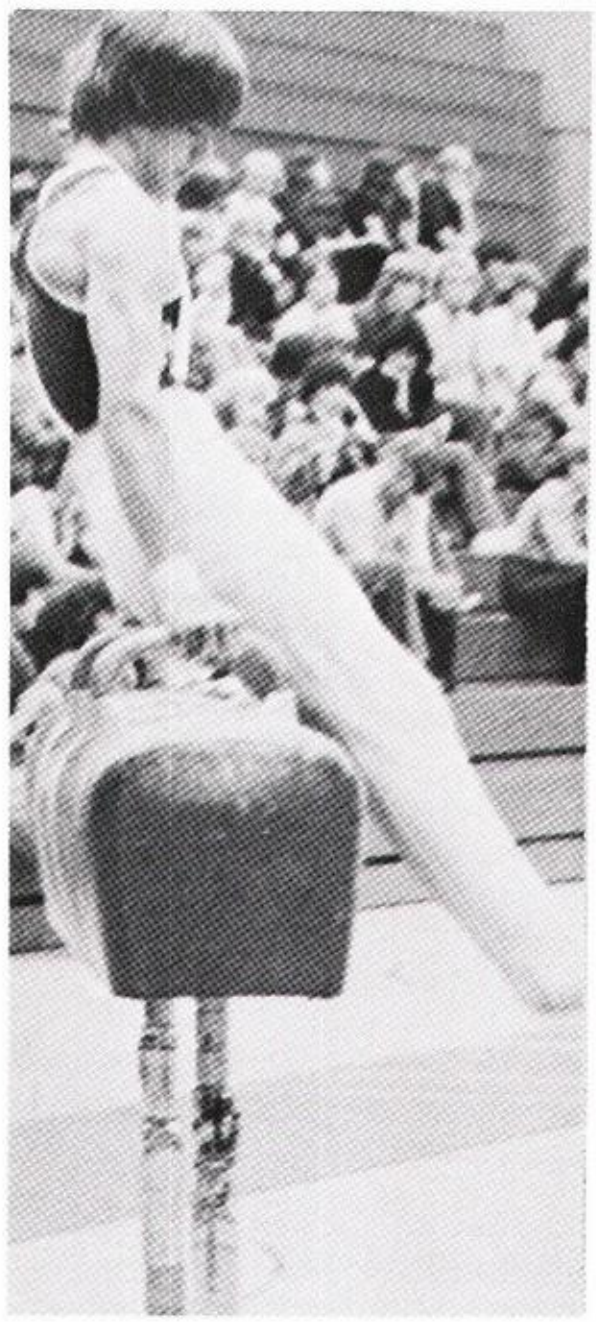
The Millers gymnastics team, consisting of one senior, the rest freshmen and sophomores, had a very good year. They improved their district place to fourth from a sixth place last year.

Coach Holbrook was really pleased with their outstanding performances. "It was remarkable for such a young team. They did very well." Two of the freshmen, Lori Hill and Chris Moses were the two strongest girls on the team. They were very mature in poise and ability.

Lori Hill placed 3rd in the state meet in the balance beam, and Coach Holbrook felt she did the most outstanding job.

Deby Roper, the lone senior on the team took 16th out of 60 girls on the vault. Deby will be the only one leaving the team, with all the other girls coming back with a year varsity experience. There will also be more freshmen next year. Holbrook is excited about the talent and ability of such a young team.





Gymnastics

Following a poor season last yea Springfield's boys gymnastics team wa looking for some rejuvination, which cam in the form of a new coach, Craig Chambe lain.

Chamberlain, a believer in team wor and tough practices, worked with the tea through the summer, gradually improvin the team to a fifth place finish in district

Strong performances were shown by Mik Carter, Ray Fitch, and Jim Brick, who wa voted outstanding gymnast of the yea

Coach Chamberlain was enthused with th gymnasts, and is hoping for good sopho more turnouts to replace seniors gradu ating this and next year.

"I thought we'd be 6-3 if we really played well," Coach Gary Morton said.

They did really play well, as the scores will show. First half: Sheldon 43-38, North Bend 47-42, Willamette 48, Springfield 49, and Thurston 59, Springfield 50. Second half: Springfield 43, Sheldon 38; Springfield 55, Noth Bend 53; Springfield 70, Cottage Grove 49; Springfield 54, Willamette 38. And then there's the one point loss to Thurston.

After getting blown out before coming back to make the score respectable in their first contest, the Millers were heavy underdogs to lose again. Thurston players and fans were taking the game as a joke, and they almost got that joke shoved down their throat. The Millers had three chances to win it in the last thirty seconds, but none of the shots would drop and the Millers were left a win short of their goal, but a long ways ahead of proving they were no joke to the 5AAA schools.

"I think we proved something to some people around here," points out Darren Harmon.

There was a crusade to win that Thurston game, but only because the Millers wanted to break over .500 to prove something to a lot of people. They didn't really need to, though--they'd already shown a rare combination of guts and determination.

"It was a good season that should've been better," Smith concluded.

All things considered, it was a great season.

Springfield has been well known in the past for having a winning season. The girls didn't make it to state this year, but had a very successful season, again coming up with a winning season.

In the first half the Millers started the league games with a 57-38 loss to South Eugene.The champions of the league, and are going on to state. Springfield ended up with a 3rd place, going 7-2. The girl's only other loss came from Sheldon, who won the first half 9-0. Springfield, in the rest of their league games, beat opponents on the average of 11 points.

The second half, Springfield dropped to 6-3, losing to Sheldon by 16, South by 1 point in the final seconds, and North Eugene by 5 in overtime. In the 6 games won they averaged 16 more points than opponents, ending their overall season averaging of 41.5 points to their opponents 37.5.

Lori Quick, who was voted by her teammates the Most Valuable player and Most Inspirational, led all players with 208 points during the season. She averaged 11 points a game, tossing in 28 against Thurston.

Sally Harmon came next in points making 188, averaging 9.4. Her high game was 29 tying the school record. Kathy Dean, who coaches voted the Most Improved scored 153 points, averaging 7.7 a game. She had a high game of 19.

Kelly Smith, the lone 3 year varsity letterperson, sank 141 points, making 7.5 a game.

SPRING WEEK

Scheduled to become an annual event, Spring Week, was introduced this year. The week added some fun to the "end of the year blues" that many students were experiencing. Eventgs such as pyramid bujilding, toilet paper statues, pie eating, egg throwing, and tricycle racing were held with each class competing against each other.

The senior class was admitted into the end of the week dance free for receiving the most points.

READING

Miller Spirit (Negative)
by Cindy Williamson

As the first player on the Millers boy's basketball team took the floor when introduced, the whole gym stood still. Silence fell over the court, only the faint murmmer of a few rally girls and the pep band could be heard. But when the second player was called to be recognized, the voice of the announcer drowne out the murmer. Again silence filled the entire premises.

This may all sound unrealistic, but at times this years, things came close to situations exactly like those. Not as bad, but remembering football games, pep assemblies, and other activities, the school lacked spirit. It wasn't the rally members fault, but the student body. They just did not get involved.

The handful of people who came to girls games made more noise than all the people at the boys games half the time. The main people at the girls games being parents. Parent caring more than the kids. Yelling to their hearts content on everything from a foul to an in the net call. A thought comes to mind that maybe that's why the girls were winning--someone cared.

At the final pep assembly, there was a little noise, but nothing compared to the past. There wasn't even an assembly to bring the sophomores together with their upperclass people. That was a very emotional time -- knowing you're really all one big school, instead of three different classes. Anyone who went throught initiation week, then the assembly will say the same thing: At that time, you really know you're somebody not just a dumb sophomore.

People who didn't go through that (sophomores and the juniors and seniors who skipped assemblies) felt they had to prove that they were somebody another way. They were out to get attention, and who knows what else, so they went around doing other things. They smoked in the restrooms and tore them up; tried to ruin the elevator; ripped apart everything they got their hands on; and vandalised most appliances and machinery on the school grounds that was for their learning value and enjoyment. Granted, not as many fights happened, mostly because students were too busy tearing up things. They took their aggressions out on material things, not students.

As a senior, I'm saying goodbye to the school for good. And hello to a litter-free, spirited college where there is no vandalism, no charge to see athletic events, and a very good athletic program. It will be a change I'm looking forward too.

But as juniors and sophomores, you'll be saying goodbye to the school, too. The school we used to have. And hello to Springfield with no resource, plentiful litter and vandalism, a lot of rules, and regulations that were never before, and worst of all, no school spirit.

The only way it will be different is if the student body changes. The teachers and administrators are tired of trying to do it all. Now it is the student's turn.

SHS spirit-positiv

Center top: The varsity rally perform their dance to "Happy Days."
Center middle: Lesa Brown, Lori Palerm and Ken Carpenter sing the alma mat after a Miller victory.
Right top: Randy Smith get excited at baksetball game.
Right middle: Miller fans whoop it up aft a Miller victory.
Center bottom: Gerald Sanders and Te Hedlund question a referee call.

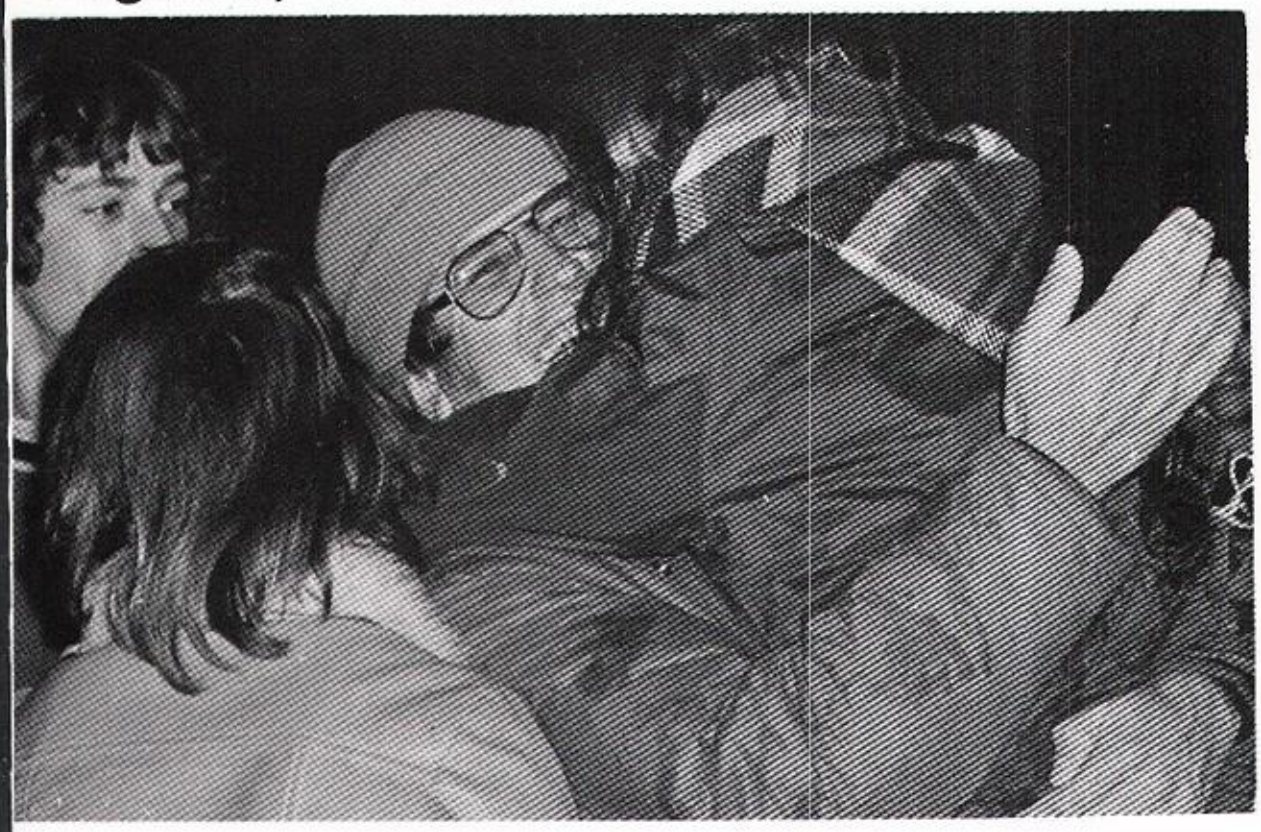
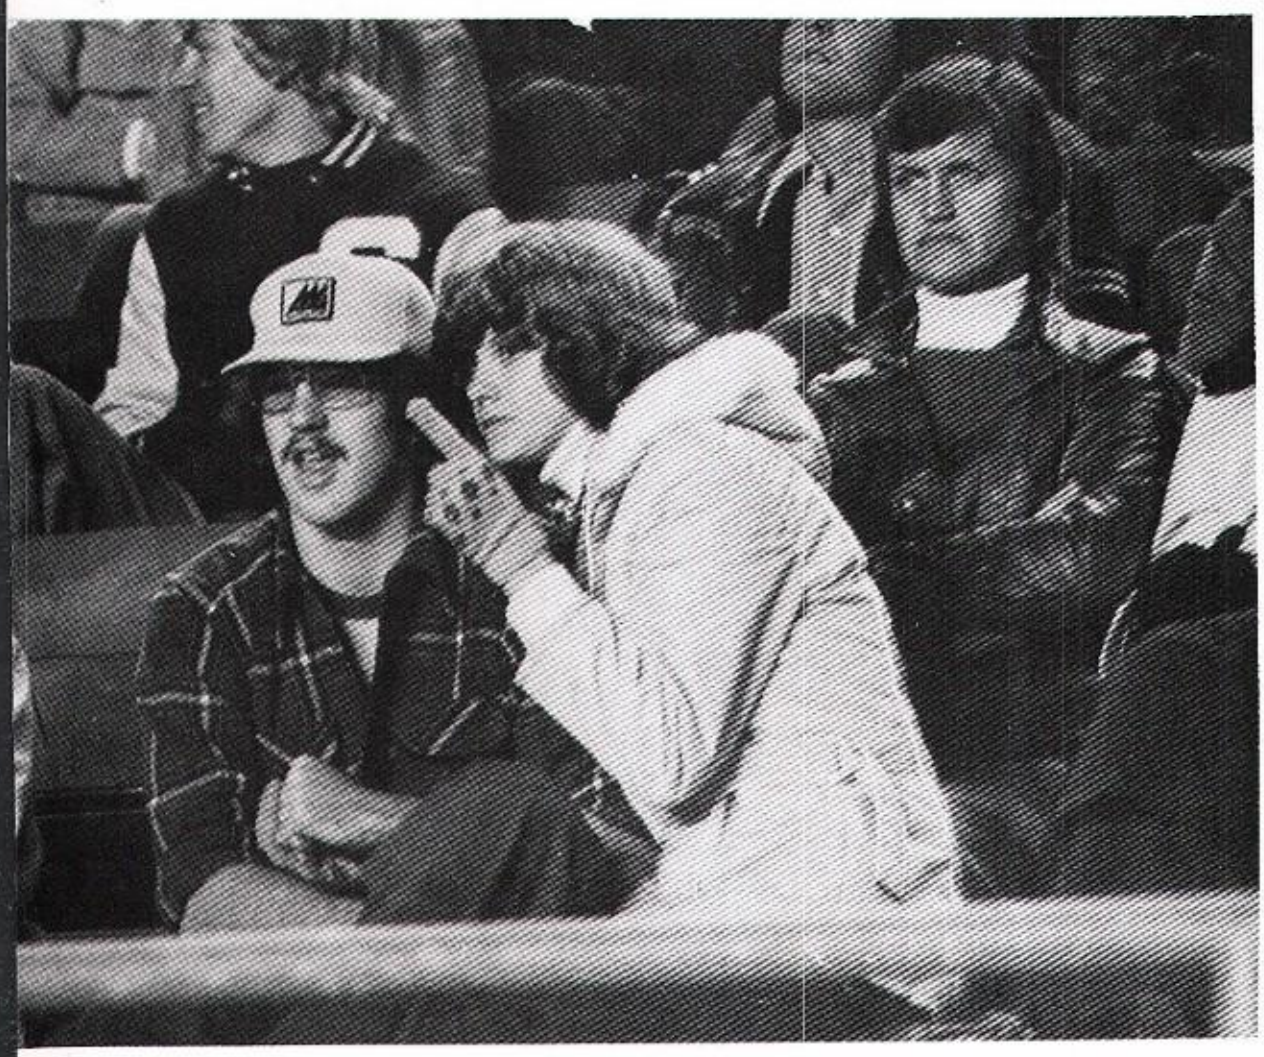
negative, or a little of both?





Miller Spirit (Positive)
by Wendy Watson

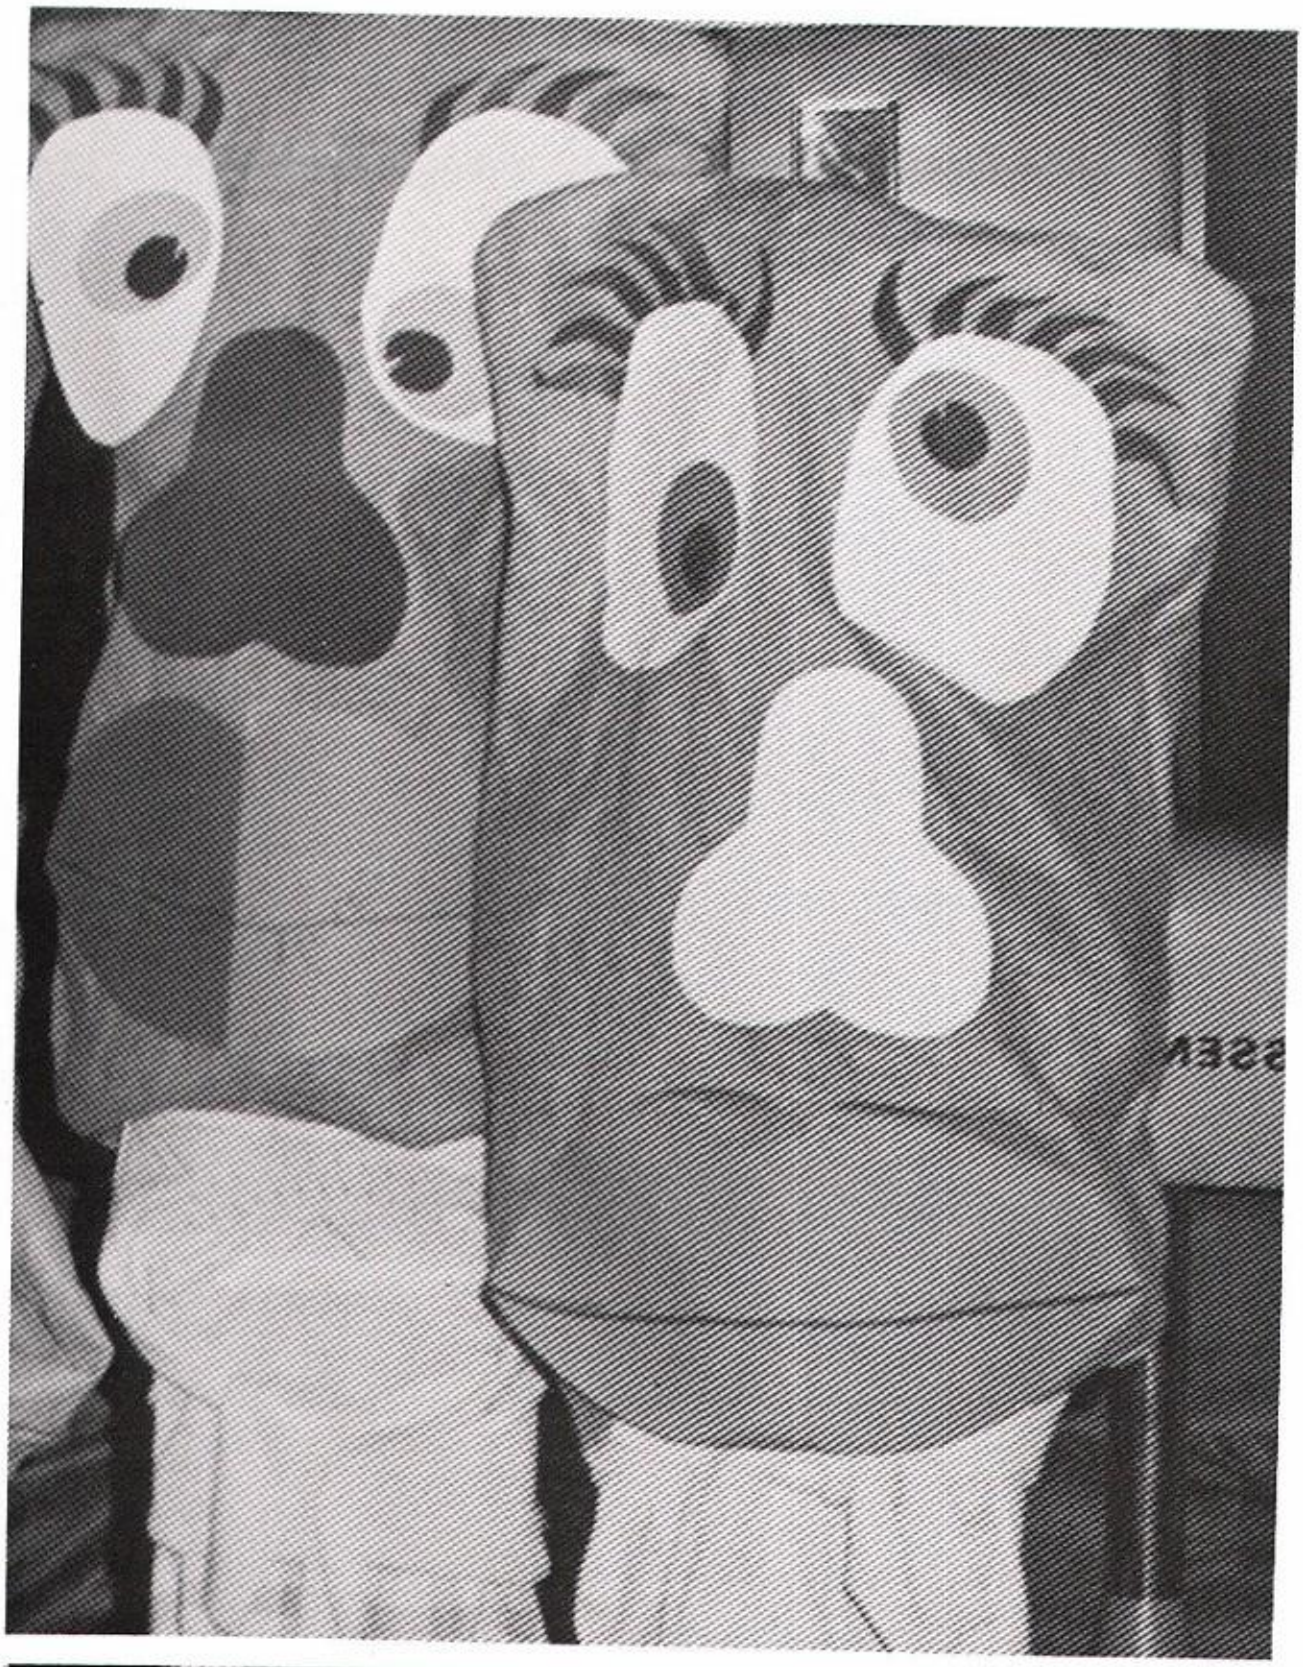
Proud to be a Miller? You bet I am. And you can ask any other Springfield High student the same and I'm positive that they will say the very same thing.

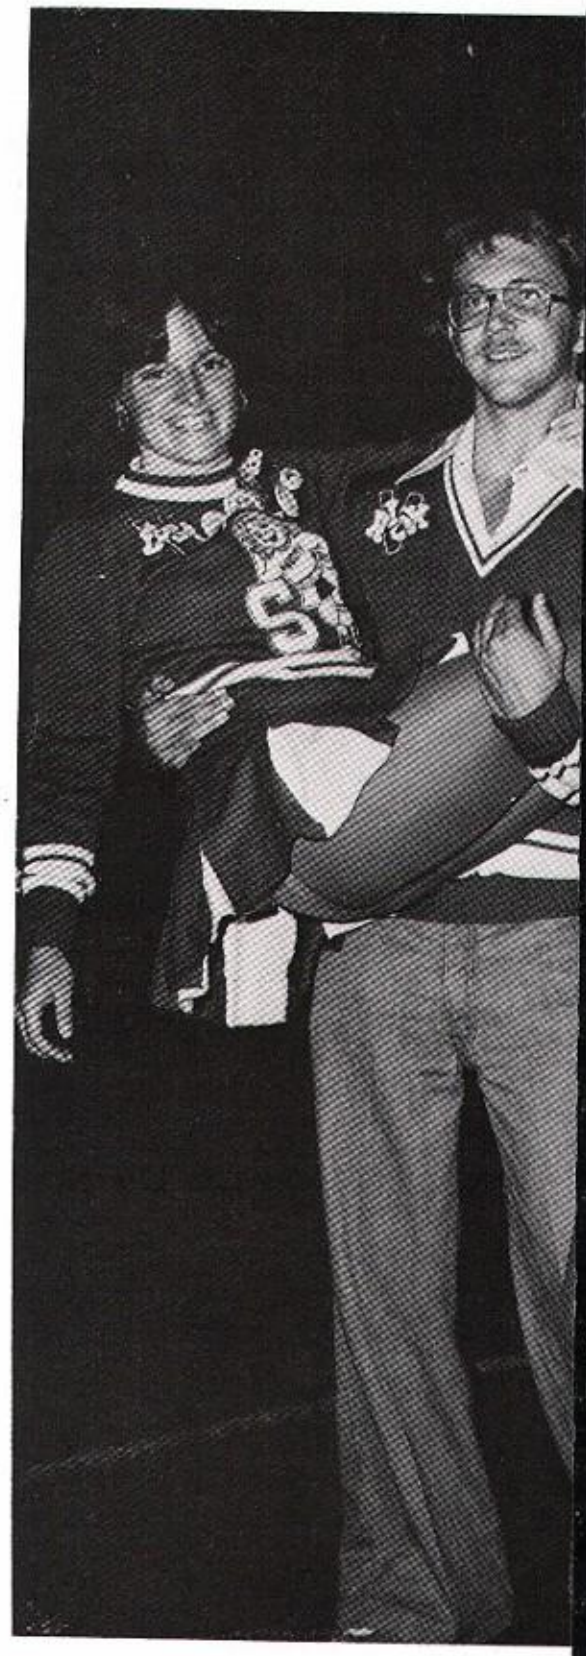
Every school has it's low points, but the Mighty Miller Machine has the spirit to abolish any thoughts of it in our school.

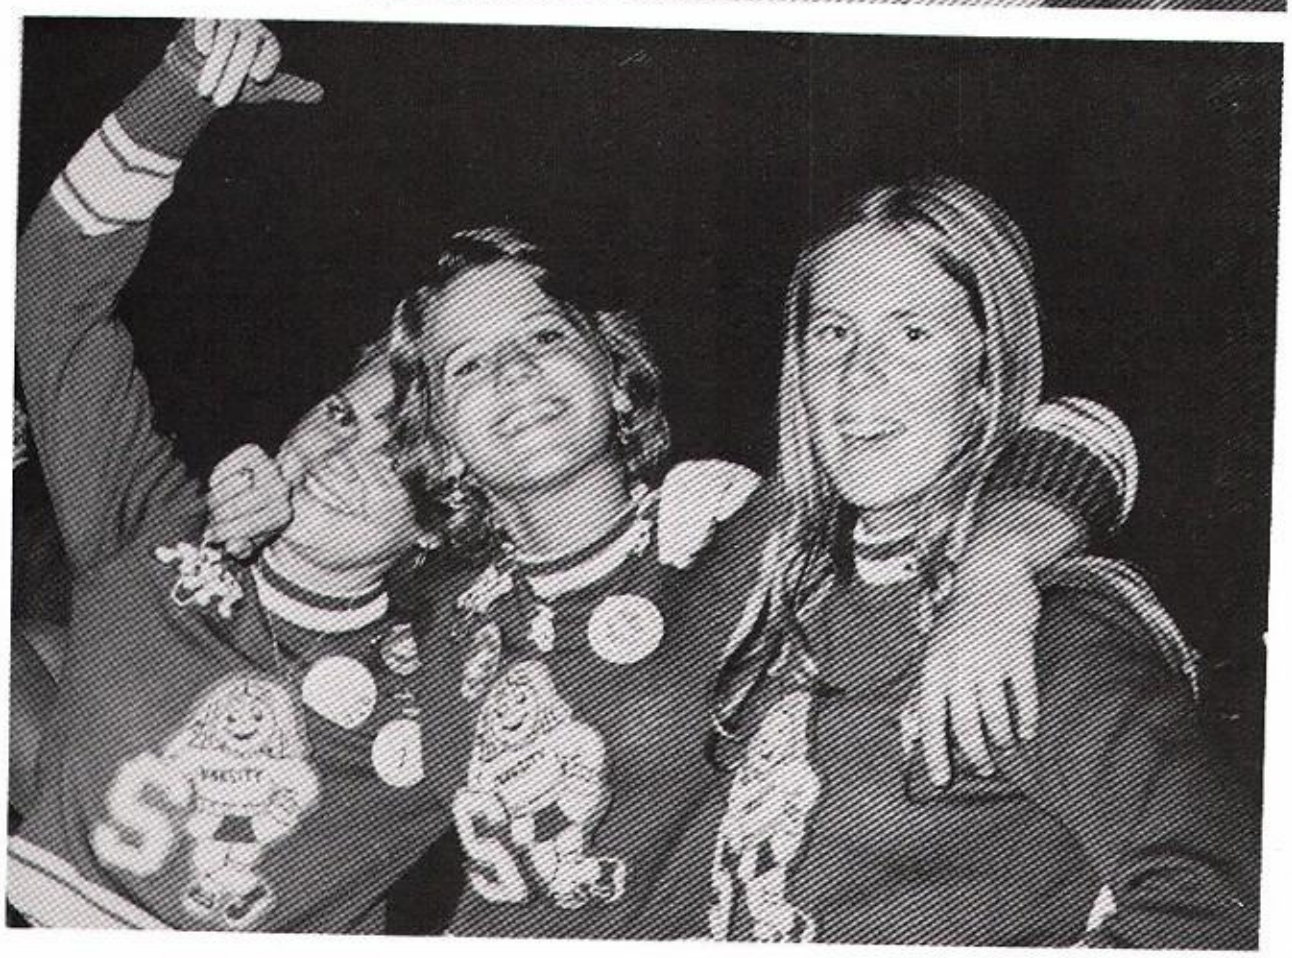
The rally's tried their hardest to get the student body riled up for games. But to no avail.....because we were already psyched up to beat the tar out of the opposing team. If not on the court or field, we would beat them in the spirit department. An undefeated season every time.

Not only was verbal spirit around, but other forms were shown in buttons, balloons, confetti, pinatas, etc....Every where one looked was some form or another of spirit.

During Football season, on any Friday, a visitor may have thought that we all wore blue and white uniforms. Yes, Blue and White Day's were always big as so was our spirit. And at the end of the day when we shed our blue and white garb, we kept our school spirit deep within us. And fifteen years from now we shall look at a student decked out in blue and white, and that Mighty Miller spirit will once again rise up. For we always shall be Millers!







Varsity Rally

Top left-Two rally girls dress for the part in a pep assembly skit. Bottom left-Tamy Howard, Lori Quick, and Tami Kinley "ham" it up for the camera. Above-Rick Garboden shows his strength with Lesa Brown weightless in his arms. Opposite page--Top left-Dick Jones and Lori Palermo do their stuff at a football game. Top center-Ken carpenter and Tami Kinly show what team they're for. Top right-Dick Jones watches intently as the Millers stomp their opponent. Center-Cory Holman, Lisa Fandrem, Tami Kinley, Michelle Adams, Lori Quick, And Tamy Howard sing the "Alma Mater" after the game.

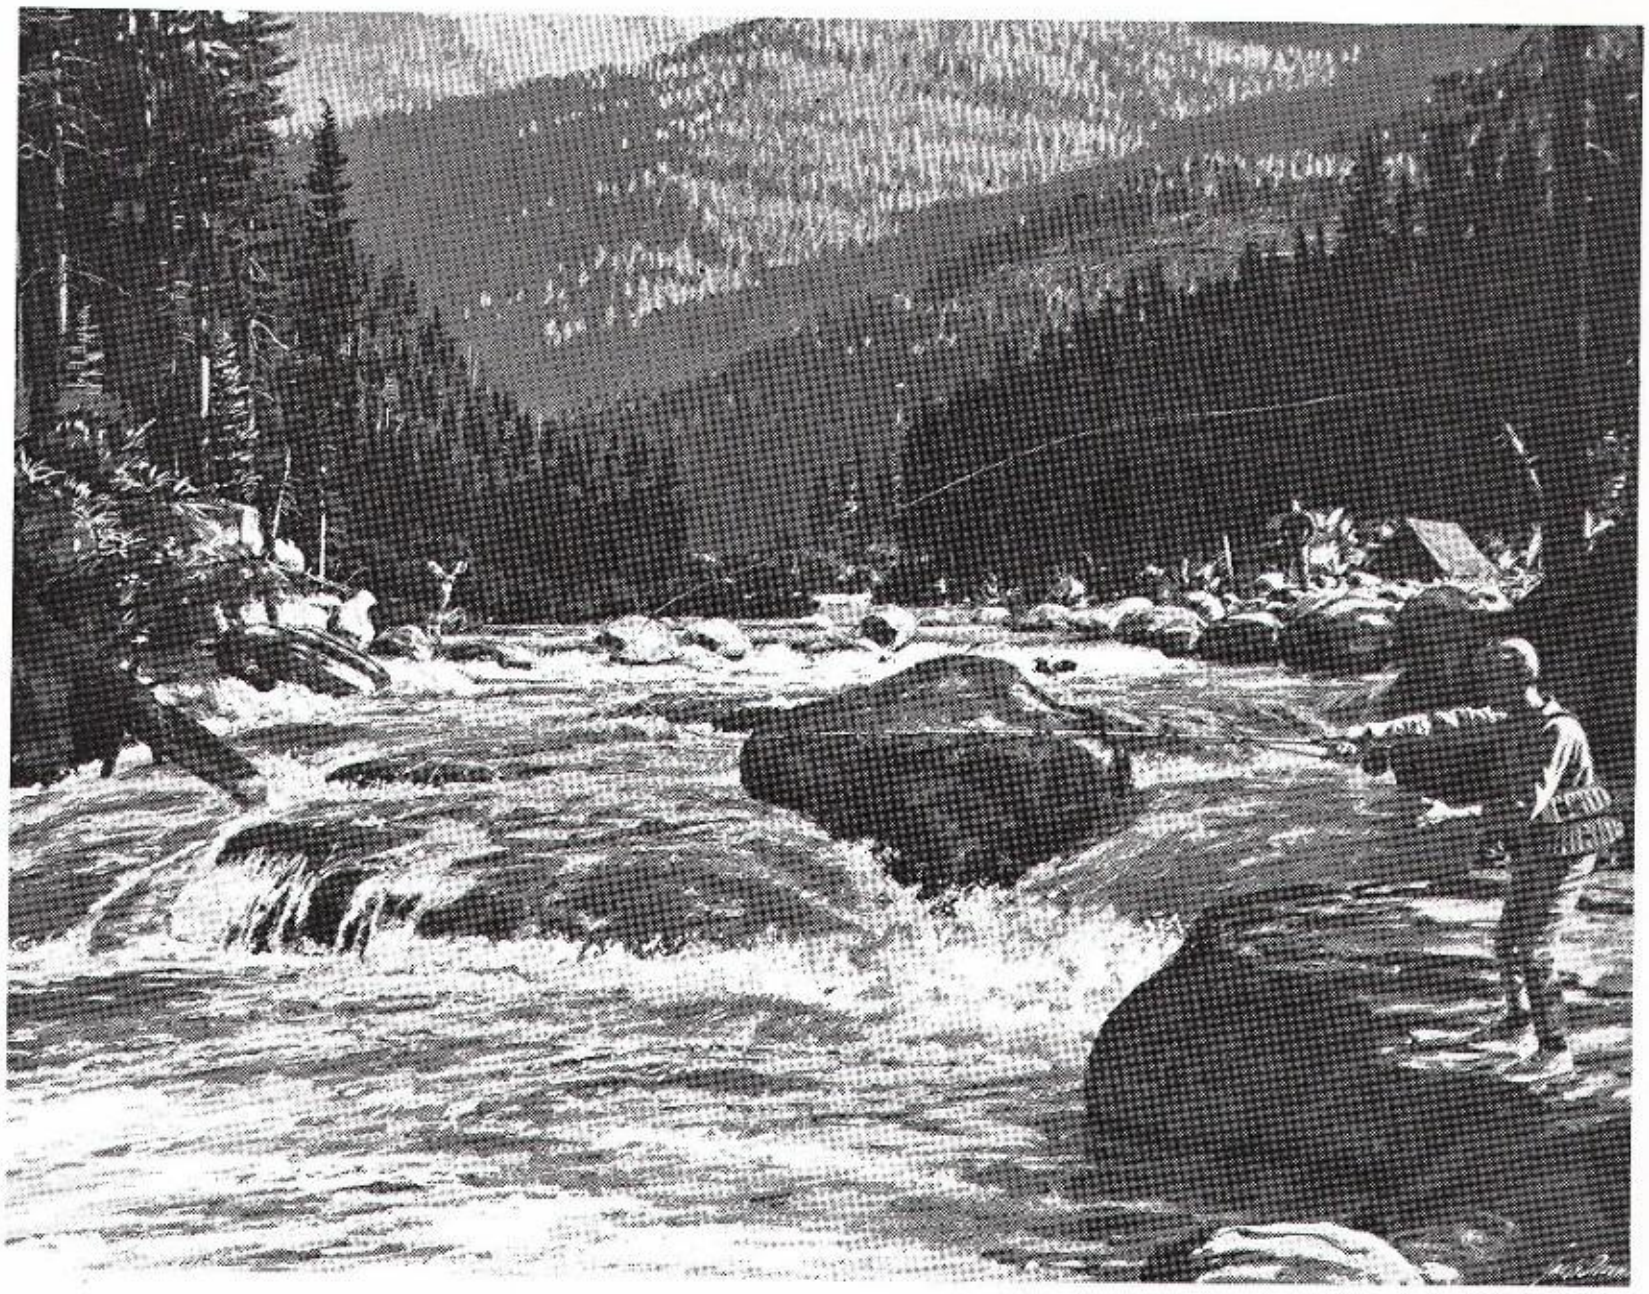
OF OREGON, INC.

NEAL A. CARLSON
President & Gen. Mgr.



The quality of life comes in many forms.

Food, shelter and clothing. Education. Health care. Recreation.

These go into the quality of life. And we want to help our employees and their communities achieve the quality they want.

By providing jobs — and a chance to learn and grow on the job.

Through taxes for schools and services.

With our efforts to protect the environment.

By encouraging employee participation in government and community functions.

By manufacturing useful and dependable products.

And by managing our forest lands to provide recreational opportunity, and to serve as a habitat for wildlife.

Weyerhaeuser

The Tree Growing Company

Tina,
you are a real sweet person & I'm really glad I got to know ya again! If it weren't for you I don't know what I would do in school and like would have me around the country side Ha Ha seriously, you have really been a great help to me. as for you and jack, I wish you guys all the luck in the world. I am really looking forward to skiing with ya. you better not make fun of me either.
"mmm Baaahhhh" I can graduate with you. I think I can get the credits. I hope I can always be friends.
Have a good year, and Don't be getting any more $27 speeding tickets.
See ya!

Love Always
Steve
